THE JOY OF EASTER

Last weekend, Rosary witnessed amazing celebrations.

On Holy Saturday night, we had the experience of going out of a dimly lit church to Woodward Avenue, where soon a fire was blazing for the lighting of the Easter candle. (Setting the fire up in a place away from the wind was an almost impossible task!)

The newly lit candle was placed in its holder as we heard the Easter Proclamation chanted. Thanks to Tim Choloway for bringing his expertise to chant this prayer. The beautiful flowers, the vibrant music, the presence of so many friends all combined with the main reason for Easter to produce a memorable evening. Sunday, one estimate counts about 300 people here for Mass. So many old friends! We were privileged to witness the baptism of two young children—Tyler Adewale Charles Aibona and Kyren Isaiah Oubre. The social hour after Mass went on until almost 1 PM. During this time, the children participated in an Easter egg hunt in the chapel. Thanks to Eartha McClendon and her crew for dying the eggs! Easter, 2012, was certainly filled with joy at Rosary!

A WEEK FOR MEETINGS

Last week, several Rosary groups had meetings. The Parish Council met Wednesday. Discussion about the Archdiocese's requirements for "survival" are still being explored and discussed. Stay tuned. There is a proposal that, because of the "negotiations" the selection of new members scheduled for late summer might be postponed. It's necessary that members have the background on the discussions taking place. A lot of suggestions were generated, mostly dealing with attracting more members, which we need, and raising money. At the next meeting we will hear about a web site, advertising, fund raising/ development, etc. The new Finance Committee had its first meeting Tuesday. Their first duty from the Archdiocese is to put together a budget for fiscal 2012-2013. They gathered information about Archdiocesan bookkeeping policies, etc. and are rolling up their sleeves to produce a budget for us to review.

EARTH DAY

Next Sunday, is “Earth Day Sunday.” For 40 years, efforts have been made to raise awareness about “preserving God’s creation and generous gift.” This week Ann Murphy and Joe Holt started “beautifying” our yard, and others came by to pick up trash, old weeds, etc. Feel free to plant / clean / etc. whenever it’s convenient. Remember, we still have a lot of excellent fireplace logs and wood. Help yourself.

COMING UP IN APRIL

April continues to be one of our busiest months. Here are a few ideas about events you might want to sample:

April 15 The annual Buddy's Pizza Slice for Life to benefit the Capuchin Soup Kitchen. All Buddy's locations will have a "Capuchin special" from 11 AM until 10 PM to benefit the soup kitchen: all-you-can-eat two topping pizza and salad, $15 for adults, $6 for children under 10. Anybody for pizza?

April 22 A highly acclaimed film, The Interrupters, will be shown at the Hamtramck Public Library on Caniff at 6 PM. This is a study of youth violence, filmed in Chicago showing former gang members, community groups and activists trying to prevent the "escalating tragedy of ...violence among youth." Given Detroit's increasing youth violence, this film might provide insight.

April 28 Diocesan Black Women's Conference—9 – 4 at St. Scholastica (W. Outer Drive and Southfield). "Reflections of Change." See Darlene Oubre for information.

April 29 St. Patrick's 33rd Annual Spring Irish Festival. 1 - 9 PM. Watch for details.

April 28 – May 20 "Raven's Seed" the Matrix Theater's new production.
