RETREAT OPPORTUNITY

A very special opportunity is being offered to parishioners of Detroit City parishes: a weekend retreat at the famous Manresa Jesuit Retreat House, located just a few miles up Woodward from here, at Big Beaver Road. The retreat runs from Friday evening, August 17, with dinner at 7 PM, to Sunday, August 19th at 1 PM. Private rooms and baths are available. While there is no charge for the retreat, a freewill offering is gratefully accepted. Why not talk to a couple of your Rosary friends and plan to be a part of this retreat? Registrations can be made by calling Manresa: 248-644-4933.

NON-VIOLENCE TRAINING

A very interesting and unique opportunity is being offered by the Marygrove College Masters in Social Justice Program: a one-day training workshop in skills for dealing with violent situations. What participants will learn will assist them in interpersonal interactions and also prepare them to deescalate potentially violent situations. Interested in learning some new skills? The workshop will be in the Marygrove Green and Gold Room of the Student Center, 8245 W. McNichols, 9 – 5 next Saturday, August 18. A continental breakfast and vegetarian lunch will be served. There is no cost, but donations will be accepted to cover the costs of the program.

A THOUGHT ABOUT STEWARDSHIP

As we think about our parish financial support, consider:

Whatever you have—has been given!

Whatever you give—will be returned!

EVENTS IN OUR COMMUNITY

- Don't forget the Boston-Edison neighborhood Attic Sale from 9 – 4 today (Sunday). Maps are available at 155 Chicago. Balloons will mark participating homes.
- Next Friday, August 17, our friends at St. Cecilia invite us to an evening of Jazz and Taste on the parish grounds. You are invited to bring chairs and friends to enjoy this evening, 6 – 10 PM. Live jazz entertainment by “Whatchuwant”, and a special appearance by Edmond Parker, Gospel Jazz Saxophonist. Food will be available for purchase, including ribs, smoked sausage, chicken, fish or shrimp tacos, and beverages. Ten food tickets are $20 in advance at the St. Cecilia Office, or $25 at the door.
- More jazz! The people of St. Peter Claver Parish, where Fr. James O'Reilly is Pastor, invite us to their 10th annual Jazz on the Grass Concert, Sunday, August 26 from 3 – 6 PM. Rosary members have attended these concerts in the past and really liked them. Local jazz artists will be featured and food and refreshments will be available. Bring a lawn chair and enjoy! A free will offering would be appreciated. (St. Peter Claver is the old Precious Blood Parish on Grove Street.)

FRIDAY NOON LUNCHES

For the last few years, we have provided lunches on Fridays for our friends who move around our parish community. Last Friday, because of threatening weather, there was no “sit down” meal in the backyard. Several friends did meet us at the door and accepted a bagged lunch. Then on to other sites:

First we visited the men who live in the McAnoy Center Transitional Housing. We had a surprise and most welcome guest, Eileen Karrer-Perkins from Atlanta. In the 1970s and early 1980s, Eileen was a vital part of the Rosary pastoral team, so she welcomed the opportunity to interact with our friends. Deacon Bob keeps things “in focus.”

Next, on to Milwaukee Street, where Deacon Bob is known as a Street Preacher and The Lunchman! Our friends lined up in anticipation.

Trina Martell is an important part of the lunch program. Her cole slaw is highly recommended by our friends on the street. Olivia and Sophia gladly assist Mom, having a lot of “lunch expertise” from preparing and serving the sandwiches we serve after Mass on Sundays, which they joyfully carry on trays in the recessional procession as Mass ends.
