50/50 RAFFLE TIME AGAIN!

The Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance's quarterly 50/50 raffle will be held on September 19, during the Harvest Dinner. It's Rosary's time to have a winning ticket again, right? The best way to make this happen would be by more and more tickets being bought by Rosary members! Tickets are here and will be available either this Sunday, or next weekend for sure!

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Our friend and former parishioner George Harrington, who died a few weeks ago, will be remembered at a memorial service here at Rosary next Saturday, August 25, at 1 PM. George always loved Rosary, especially the people and the Spirit, so it is fitting that Rosary be the site of his memorial. His former wife Maggie Harrington and her sister Carol Sontag often accompanied George to Rosary when he visited Detroit from Chicago. Let's keep George and his family in our prayers.

NEWS OF ROSARY FRIENDS

Barbara Bedolla reports her surgery was successful and she is now recovering in a nursing home. She looks forward to getting home and back to Rosary. Let's pray for her quick and complete recovery.

Tom Anderson, a former Rosary Minister of Service, sends word that he has retired from his position at Stuart University in Chicago and has returned to Pittsburgh. Tom keeps up with his many friends at Rosary—particularly those who worship on Saturday—and always asks to have his best wishes shared on their birthdays. Best wishes to Tom and his wife for a retirement filled with happiness.

Pam Lantz visited Rosary a couple of years ago and fell in love with us. She and Richard have visited Rosary from time to time from their home in West Virginia, and they faithfully show their love for us through regular donations. Thank you , Pam and Richard. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

DON'T FORGET

Our friend Fr. James O'Reilly, Pastor of St. Peter Claver Parish, who so often substitutes here when needed, invited us to Jazz on the Grass, next Sunday, August 26 from 3 – 6 PM at St. Peter Claver Church, 13305 Grove between Schaefer and Littlefield (the former Precious Blood Church). The program featuring local jazz artists is free, but free will offerings are accepted. Food and refreshments will be available. Bring a lawn chair and some friends and plan to spend a pleasant late-summer afternoon.

2012 BLACK CATHOLIC ASSEMBLY

Every two years, the Archdiocese of Detroit hosts a Black Catholic Assembly at Sacred Heart Seminary. One focus is to encourage individuals to become involved in the work of the Black Catholic Ministry. This year's program will be Saturday, September 15 from 9 AM to 12:30 PM. The event is free, and lunch is provided. It would be great to have a delegation from Rosary at the assembly. Watch for more information.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

The world works from the outside in.
The Lord works from the inside out.
The world would take people out of the slums.
Christ takes the slums out of the people,
And then they take themselves out of the slums.
The world would mold people by changing their environment.
Christ changes people, who then change their environment.
The world would shape human behavior,
But Christ can change human nature.

COLLEGE—AN ENDING AND A BEGINNING

Congratulations to Dominique Gould—not only from her mother Brigitte White, but from all her Rosary family.

A True Rosary Family Graduation. Dominique is surrounded by a happy family, including (among others) her mother, and many relatives.

THE PIED PIPER OF ROSARY!

Patrick Yee came forward last Sunday to receive our blessing as he—and his flute—depart for college. Let's keep Patrick in our prayers, along with other Rosary young people heading back to college—Michael Oubre, Jr. and Montel Roberts.
