SAFETY IN THE CITY CAMPAIGN

From time to time over the last few weeks, we have talked about the Church's participation in programs to promote a safer Detroit. This involvement is not just for Catholics, but for all Detroiters. The two goals of this campaign are:

- To change the culture, conversations and discussions in the City from helplessness and hopelessness to hopefulness;
- To inspire imitation and similar efforts by people of the community, who care.

Among the actions planned are the Stand Up and Speak initiative, which we have presented at Rosary; employment training in partnership with Focus:Hope; basketball programs for youth with focused life discussions / interactions; a Junior Cadet program focused on the youth of SouthWest Detroit; Health fairs; literacy programs; and the development of programs to provide individual counseling and mentoring for young people.

One key part of this safety-oriented thrust involves removing dangerous weapons from our streets. Every day too many people are shot. Next Thursday the gun buy-back program will be centered at St. Cecilia Church, 10400 Stoepel near Livernois and Grand River. The gun buy-back will take place from 9:30 AM to 3:30 PM. Money from this program was provided to the Detroit Police Department from Catholic Churches. Rosary's $300 is included! There are simple rules:

1. The weapons to be turned in must be unloaded.
2. This will be a first-come, first-served buy-back. If the money runs out, the program ends for that day.
3. No questions will be asked about the weapons.
4. Cash will be given on the spot to those turning in weapons.
  - Up to $25 for non-functioning weapons
  - Up to $50 for operational weapons. $100 maximum for 2 or more operational weapons
  - $100 maximum for assault weapons--$200 maximum for two.
  - $25 for long guns.

Why not spread the word of this campaign?

Also—at the same time, vehicle owners can have their car's vehicle ID number etched in the window glass by professionals.

LOOKING AHEAD

For the last few years, Rosary has had a parish-community picnic. This is an excellent way to get to know our neighborhood friends. Plans are being made for this year's picnic. The neighborhood has suggested a Sunday picnic, beginning at 11:30. As Mass ends, the food will be ready! The probably date is Sunday, September 9. This is only 2 weeks away! Watch for details.

KEEP IN MIND

- 50/50 raffle tickets from the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance are available this weekend. The Drawing is September 19.
- St. Peter Claver Parish presents Jazz on the Grass this afternoon, August 26 from 3-6 PM at the church, 13305 Grove. Food and refreshments will be sold. Bring a chair and enjoy. There is no charge, but free will offerings are appreciated.
- Keep Barbara Bedolla in prayer as she recovers from surgery. Progress is slow, and there is pain—which our prayers can help Barbara deal with. She's in the Evergreen Nursing Home in Southfield.
- Remember the Black Catholic Assembly Saturday, September 15 from 9 AM to 12:30 PM. It would be great to have representatives from Rosary to share plans and developments with us.
