CONGRATULATIONS

Every summer we take a moment to celebrate with Rosary friends who are experiencing changes in their lives. This year, we have seven special friends who we honor today. In alphabetical order—

- Thomas Anderson: Thomas left Rosary a couple of years ago to take a position as a college administrator in Chicago, but he has kept up with us through receiving the weekly bulletin and by visiting when possible. He was a Minister of Service during his time at Rosary. Tom will retire in 35 days!
- Eliisa Bojanic: Eliisa has been part of Rosary since birth. Growing up she always helped on our projects along with her parents Corinne and Tony and her brother Ian. Eliisa graduated from Michigan State University with a Bachelor of Science degree and is looking forward to medical school. She will not be with us today because she is in France!!!
- Lana Douglas-Hardin: Lana is always ready to assist with Rosary projects, along with her entire extended family. She is a Minister of Service and has worked hard on special events such as our Kwanzaa celebration. Lana is retiring after teaching in the Detroit Public Schools for over 30 years.
- Lauren Hollier: Lauren is graduating from the University of Michigan. She is at Rosary as much as possible, with her parents Carl and Jackie Hollier.
- Soochan Lee: Soochan has been worshipping at Rosary for the last couple of years while studying at the College for Creative Studies. He is graduating with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Transportation Design.
- Kristopher Poole: Kris and his entire family have been important parts of our Rosary family for over twenty years. Kris is moving to Chicago to accept a new job with CapGemini Corporation.
- Patrick Yee: Patrick also has been at Rosary since birth. It has been our pleasure to watch him grow and share his many talents with us, most noticeably his singing in our choir and lately his wonderful flute playing during Mass. Patrick has always been willing to assist with Rosary projects, even bringing his Boy Scout troop with him to assist with packing Christmas food baskets! Patrick is graduating from Roper School, where he has starred in many dramatic productions. He is headed to college to major in some aspect of performing arts. (Continued)

Isn't this an impressive list of Rosary honorees? Be sure to extend your personal congratulations to each. Join them after Mass for some ice cream and cake—surely a welcome treat on a hot Sunday.

EPIPHANY SUMMER PROGRAM

From July 30 – August 10, Epiphany Education Center on the West Side of Detroit will be offering a program in reading, math and enrichment for students going into grades 3 – 8. The program will meet from 9 AM to noon on Mondays through Fridays. There is a $10 registration fee and a required orientation day Thursday, July 26 from 9 – 11 AM. Call 313 267 – 1830 for more information.

KEEP IN PRAYER

Our friend Barbara Bedolla asks to be remembered in our prayers as she faces surgery this week. Barbara knows the power of Rosary prayer!

A VISIT FROM AN OLD FRIEND

David Hirt, now a Capuchin brother, is spending the summer at the Capuchin monastery on Mount Elliott, so he will be dropping by Rosary from time to time. Just like the old days when he was a student and a weekly worshipper here, David headed for the choir area and added his voice to our choir. We had many memories of the old days—such as when we had a spaghetti dinner fundraiser to help him go to Russia for studies. Lou and Mary Morand were glad to see an old friend:

HAPPY 40TH ANNIVERSARY!

Our friends Will and Martina (Fruge) O'Sullivan came to Rosary to renew their wedding vows on their 40th anniversary. They were especially excited that their friend, Fr. Morand, would perform this ceremony in front of so many old friends at Rosary:

Their daughter helped calm jittery nerves as her parents stood before the congregation to renew vows and receive our blessing.

Father Morand was delighted to witness the renewal of vows.

Father Morand, Will and Martina (Frugé) O'Sullivan.
