CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

We are entering the second week of the CSA campaign. Our first week generated about ten percent of our assigned quota of $6000. We still have time to meet the projected deadline of the end of May. Remember to think of this as a pledge campaign; for each month pick an amount that you are comfortable with. For example, if you can spare five dollars each week, that's twenty dollars a month which comes out to 200 dollars for the ten months of the CSA campaign. If only 30 members of Rosary could do this, we would easily reach out 6000 dollar quota. Of course, many Rosary members will be more generous. In these days of being "watched" by "downtown," we must be sure we are meeting all the goals assigned to us.

DETROIT CATHOLIC PASTORAL ALLIANCE
NEWS

This Wednesday, May 16, the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance holds its annual "Thank You" meeting at 6 PM at the Sacred Heart Parish Activities Building. A free spaghetti dinner is featured. This would be an excellent opportunity for those who do not know about the Alliance to come and learn about the projects and activities taking place right in our community. The drawing for the winning 50/50 raffle ticket will be held. (Tickets are available this weekend from Norbert or Samantha.) Rosary has a tradition going back almost 30 years of being a strong supporter of the Alliance. Let's have a good Rosary delegation at this dinner and meeting to show our continued support.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

The final Scripture study session for this season will be tomorrow, May 14 at 7:00 in the Parish House. The texts to be discussed are:

1 John 4: 11 – 16

John 17: 11 -19

Everyone is welcome. This would be a great meeting to attend, to give you insight into how you can study and pray Scripture over the summer.

COME AWAY RETREAT

A silent, directed retreat, “Come Away,” will be held May 18-20 at Mercy Center in Farmington. A director guides you to walk with the Lord; the silence allows you space away from the distractions of daily life. The cost is $90 (or whatever you can afford) and includes two nights and meals at the center. For details contact Barbara Bedolla 248-541-5279, or Sister Rose Marie at 313 869-2160.

EQUESTRIAN'S DREAM 2ND ANNUAL CHARITY RIDE

Our friend Marcus Oubre invited us to support the Renaissance Equestrian Society, a group of generous horsemen and horsewomen who use their riding skills to generate donations to charity—in this case the Karmanos Cancer Center. Saturday, May 19 the group will gather at the Woodside Shelter on Belle Isle at 10 AM, rain or shine, with the High Noon Ride a feature at 12:00. If you own a horse, there is a $20 participation fee, and the horse must have a current 2012 Coggins Test to certify it is healthy. BUT...for all us “horse-less” Rosary people, we can be there to enjoy the riding skills on display, and to contribute toward research to fight cancer. If you can't make the ride, Marcus will have a representative at Mass to accept donations.

RAVEN'S SEED

“Raven’s Seed,” the current production of the Matrix Theater Company, has been getting fabulous reviews. EncoreMichigan wrote “This experience is utterly unique.” Other writers commented on the fierce and slapstick comedy, and the animal costumes which are “works of art.” The play is a comedy about the effects of nuclear power gone awry. You have only a few more times to experience this production: Saturdays and Sundays, May 12, 13, 19 and 20 all at 3 PM at the Matrix headquarters, 2730 Bagley. Talk to Shawn or Wes Nethercott at Mass or call 313 967-0599 for details.

MAY ROSARIES

We invite you to spend 15 or 20 minutes before Mass to join in the praying of the Rosary during the month of May. Why not try to say at least one decade of the Rosary at home each day?
