MISSION SUNDAY

This weekend we take up the annual collection for the missions. Surely we all recognize the good work these men and women do around the world. Actually, they stand in for us! We aren't able to drop everything and travel far from family and friends to spread the news of our Faith. They deserve our support—prayers and financial assistance. Please think about how far your donation will go, and how many lives will be touched. If you forget your donation this week, take a pink envelope and bring it back next week.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

Our Scripture Study group meets tomorrow, Monday, at 7 PM in the Parish House. The texts to be read and discussed are:

Hebrews 5: 1 – 10

Mark 10: 46 – 52

Everyone is invited. You do not have to have a background in Scripture—only the desire to become better acquainted with the Word of God in the Bible. Come on Monday and see how your appreciation for Scripture will increase!

A NOTE FROM BARBARA BEDOLLA

Barbara sent us an update on her progress. As we know, she had surgery in August which made her unable to move comfortably. She spent two months in a “nursing home-type” environment, allowing healing to take place. Now she is home, but faces months of therapy, both at home and in out-patient clinics. She says she is walking better and is able to get up and down more easily. Progress, however, is slow—but steady. Let's keep Barbara in our thoughts and prayers as she continues her recovery.

REMEMBER IN PRAYER

Helen Moore, sister of Darlene Oubre, Charlotte White and Kim White died last week. Her funeral was Friday. Let's keep her in our prayers and especially remember her sisters and their families during these times of sorrow and loss.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Another reminder: our religious education program starts every Sunday at 9 AM. ALL young people should be involved—especially those planning on making First Communion. Talk to Trina Martell for details.

SUPPORT OUR YOUNG STUDENTS

Rosary continues to support our youth in whatever educational projects they are involved. Mackenzie Cunningham, daughter of Samantha and Darius, is already involved in school fundraising! She attends Gesu Elementary School, which is holding a raffle to raise money. Tickets are $5. Prizes are $1000, $250 and $100. The drawing is Friday. If Mackenzie is "busy" her mother will be more than happy to provide raffle tickets. (She has plenty of experience from Alliance raffles!) Let's show our support!

Mission Sunday Special...This is the very first baptism at Rosary—August 25, 1889, a young lady named Mary Rosary Dunn. At the bottom is the signature of our founding pastor, Francis J. VanAntwerp. Underneath he has written Sacerdos Missionarius—Missionary Priest. Rosary has been “mission territory” for a long time!

Part of our religious education group, assembling for Mass after their education session. Trina Martell, assisted by Peggy Stack, can rightfully be proud of this great group.

Oh yes—the identity of the basketball team—the St. Theresa High School team from 1935. The young superstar is Adelaide Eiden—our own Sister Adelaide!
