THE FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION

Thursday, August 15 is the Holyday, the Feast of the Assumption of Mary. There will be one Mass here at noon. In these times, it might be worth the extra effort to honor Mary on this feast. She is the Patroness of the United States and we surely can use her help!

CONTINUING TOGETHER IN FAITH

Today it is St. Aloysius' opportunity to host a street fair/picnic. After the 11:30 Mass at St. Al, Washington Boulevard will turn into a "block party." There will be musical groups performing, dancing---and of course lots of food. As our Together in Faith plan unfolds, all we can do to get to know the people of St. Aloysius and St. Patrick is highly desirable. Make a point of at least stopping by the party. In fact—if you have never been inside St. Aloysius Church you might step in, since the party is literally on the doorsteps of the church. You will probably be amazed at the church lay-out. Some Rosary members are planning on attending the 11:30 Mass at St. Aloysius, so they will be down there already---looking for YOU!

SUMMER VACATION

At this point in the summer season, many Rosary people are on vacation. Some, like Shaun and Wes Nethercott, are proudly crossing the country. Others are in various "vacation" locales, and at least two families are in Europe and the Holy Land. We need to pray for their safety and that their vacation might "recharge" them. Long-distance and closer to home travelers will be remembered in our Sunday Masses for the next few weeks.

IN THE FOOTPRINTS OF ST. FRANCIS AND THE SULTAN

In the interest of interfaith dialogue, our friends at St. Patrick are hosting a gathering of members of St. Patrick, St. Aloysius, Rosary, the Franciscan community and the Muslim community Saturday, August 17, 9 AM – 12:30 PM. The purpose is to explore interfaith dialogue. A short video will be viewed about St. Francis and the Sultan Malek al-Kamil meeting in 1219 and attempting to reach out and bring about peace in the Middle East. A discussion of peacemaking interests and different approaches to interfaith dialogue will be a part of the morning. Rosary is being asked to provide three or four people willing to attend this session. We have two people planning to attend so far, but we could use one or two more. Since this is a project of our sister-parish St. Patrick, we should seriously consider supporting it and attending the program. See Norbert for details.

ROSARY FINANCES

Last weekend, 47 Offertory envelopes were used. The collection totaled $1998. This is the closest we have come to our “target” of $2200 per week in several weeks. Of course people are out of town. However, once again, we distributed almost 150 boxes of envelopes in January. This last week, 42 envelopes were actually used. Loose checks were donated from eight people who have envelopes assigned, so we were able to credit their account with the loose check. In addition, six or seven former parishioner and/or friends of Rosary faithfully mail in a monthly contribution. However, at best, there are at least 75 sets of envelopes not being used. Are fifty or sixty parishioners totally responsible for the support of the parish? Hopefully we will all stop to consider how important it is for us to demonstrate our support for Rosary.
