THANKS!

Our Parish picnic last Sunday was wonderful! The weather was perfect, the food was tasty and so many old and new friends gathered. We were happy to have Fr. Loren celebrate Mass, and to have so many parishioners of St. Patrick and St. Aloysius join us. This was a wonderful start toward getting to know parishioners from the other two parishes. Thanks to all who cooked, set up, donated food and joined in the fun.

CONTINUING TOGETHER IN FAITH

Having joined with our neighbors for a picnic last weekend, we now have a sincere invitation to join the people of St. Aloysius for their annual block party next Sunday, August 11. Washington Boulevard, in front of the church is turned into a giant picnic grounds, with food, music and fun. Parking is available all along the street. The meters are free on Sunday. The picnic will begin after the 11:30 AM Mass at St. Aloysius. Some Rosary members might consider attending Mass there. Others who attend Mass at Rosary should be able to get downtown after our Mass, just about time for our picnic to start. Let's return the support St. Aloysius gave to our picnic by enjoying theirs.

SACRED HEART BAZAAR

Our friends at Sacred Heart Parish invite us to their annual bazaar today, August 4, 9 AM – 6 PM on their parish grounds. There will be music, entertainment, an open-air market, food, bingo, a basketball tournament and much more. Be sure to stop by—and tell them you're from Rosary.

VOTE!!

Tuesday is primary election day. There are so many important issues for Detroit, including decisions about the mayor and the first-time Council members elected by districts. Be sure to take the time to cast your vote.

HELP FOR PRAYER

“This Day” is a relatively new publication designed to give Catholics a way of praying each morning and evening. The publisher has sent us some free copies of the August edition. These are available in the church. Take one and try it. If you would like to subscribe, details are in the back of the magazine.

IN THE FOOTPRINTS OF ST. FRANCIS AND THE SULTAN

In the interest of interfaith dialogue, our friends at St. Patrick are hosting a gathering of members of St. Patrick, St. Aloysius, Rosary, the Franciscan community and the Muslim community Saturday, August 17, 9 AM – 12:30 PM. The purpose is to explore interfaith dialogue. A short video will be viewed about St. Francis and the Sultan Malek al-Kamil meeting in 1219 and attempting to reach out and bring about peace in the Middle East. A discussion of peacemaking interests and different approaches to interfaith dialogue will be a part of the morning. Rosary is being asked to provide three or four people willing to attend this session. If you are interested, see Norbert.

ROSARY FINANCES

Last weekend, 38 Offertory envelopes were used. The collection totaled $1822.
