REST IN PEACE

We were truly saddened to learn of the death of Lou Morand, December 26. He had spent Christmas day surrounded by Mary, his children and grandchildren, and many out-of-town relatives and friends. Lou was such a “presence” at Rosary. His jovial personality touched all our lives. His collection of puns, witty sayings and remarks always delighted us. Lou was buried from Rosary Saturday, December 28. The whole Morand family—many generations—was here. Friends filled the church. Fr. Norman Thomas presided, along with Bishop Gumbleton, Fr. Singer, Fr. Kane, Fr. Watson and Deacon Bob Delbeke. The Mass was a testimonial to the love we all had for Lou—and to the love Lou had for us all. Our thoughts and prayers are with Mary and the entire Morand family in these times of sadness and loss.

CHRISTMAS AT ROSARY

Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to make our Christmas truly special. It is always amazing to watch things just fall into place—decorating, food distribution, etc.

Sister Joan has compiled a summary of the Christmas projects with which she was involved:

Once again, Rosary spirit was evident as many food baskets, gifts and monetary gifts were distributed. Four suburban parishes contributed about 1000 gifts to families in need, the men in the ROCC house and a number of homeless persons. In addition, we received 25 turkeys and food baskets from another parish. Twenty new kids’ coats were donated—they went fast! On Sunday, we gave out 175 turkeys and food. Some turkeys were left and generous parishioners delivered them to needy families.

So many people helped in this outpouring of love and generosity! We can only offer gratitude and a prayer that Jesus will bless all of us with peace and hope for a bright future only He can give.

NEW YEAR’S DAY

This Wednesday, we begin 2014. We will have Mass here at Rosary at 10 AM. It’s a wonderful custom to begin a New Year with Mass. For us at Rosary, this New Year has greater significance. 2014 marks the 125th anniversary of Rosary parish. Let’s make an effort to gather for Mass Wednesday morning to thank God for 125 years here on Woodward, and to pray that we continue to witness to the power of God here in the center of Detroit.

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $2,338. 51 envelopes were used. Thanks to everyone who contributed for last week and this week. The Christmas collection will be reported next week. We have been getting a lot of generous donations, many because Rosary members have asked friends and relatives to contribute to Rosary rather than buying Christmas gifts. We can still add to the Christmas total this weekend!

NEWS FROM FRIENDS

During the holiday season, many Rosary friends have sent greetings to the parish. Gail and Yates Hafner are doing well in Chicago—but they miss Rosary. Margaret Keyes stays in touch through the bulletins and sends her love. Burma Gilchrist is planning on coming to church as soon as her arthritis is under control. She misses us all. Joyce Lewis sends best wishes from Georgia. Tom Anderson sends us his regards from Pennsylvania, along with a long list of projects keeping him busy in retirement.
