LENT STARTS THIS WEEK

It seems like we just finished the Christmas season, but Lent starts this Wednesday. There are several ways you can make this a more meaningful season and prepare for Easter:

The Lenten books from the Diocese of Saginaw are available this weekend. Each day offers short readings to reflect on.

The Rice Bowl folders will be available. Try to put your spare change (and bills!) in the container to help Catholic Relief Services with its work around the world.

We will have a prayer service at noon Wednesday, with the distribution of ashes. As is our custom, ashes will be available next weekend also.

An invitation from Jean-Marie Allion: “The Lenten season could be a great opportunity to make room in our hearts and minds for the Word of God. The Rosary Bible group will be meeting every Monday during Lent. Do not hesitate to stop by and dedicate an evening to taste and enjoy Scripture by sharing about the readings for the following Sunday. “Behold! Now is the acceptable time!” The Scripture study series begins this Monday at 7 PM in the Parish House. The texts to be read and discussed are: Deuteronomy 26: 3 – 10, and Luke 4: 1 – 13. Bring a friend!

PARISH SPIRIT AWARDS

This weekend will be your last opportunity to nominate a Rosary parishioner for the annual Parish Spirit Award. Remember employees are not eligible (Sorry, Alton!) and previous winners are not eligible either—Trina Martel, Tom Oubre, George Rayes and Norbert Kidd. We have so many involved parishioners. Think about who best represents the Spirit of Rosary and submit his/her name this weekend.

KEEP IN PRAYER

Let's remember our friends dealing with health issues. Father Morand is undergoing a series of medical tests next week. Samantha Cunningham has been hospitalized with flu and pneumonia. Montel Roberts is continuing his recuperation from his appendectomy with his family here in Detroit. All of these friends surely would appreciate our prayers.

REMEMBER...

..Today, Sunday, is the Celebrate in Song and Dance program sponsored by the Black Ministries Office—4:30 Fellowship Chapel, West Outer Drive at Southfield.

..This weekend is the annual collection for the Church in Eastern Europe. Envelopes are available.

..Don't forget our annual party for residents of adult foster care homes in our neighborhood Sunday, February 24, noon – 2:30. Invitations have gone out, the DJ is ready, refreshments are on order—we need YOU to help and to meet our guests.

FINANCES

Last weekend 50 envelopes were used and the collection totaled $2460. This was the first weekend of the month, and a lot of our contributors donate once a month. We encourage you to be faithful in you envelope use and think about the cost of heating the church in the winter!

THANKS

Tom and Mary Fitzpatrick sent us thanks for our prayers for their daughter Michelle who died last week: “Thank you, family of Our Lady of the Rosary, for all the prayers and comfort extended our family during our time of need. We can feel God's love radiate from you all. You are in our hearts and prayers always.” Let's keep the whole family in our prayers.
