CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

We can officially end the 2013 CSA appeal program! Thanks to more than 60 donors, we have met our goal—and, in fact, surpassed it. Thanks to all who showed their support for Rosary. Special thanks to those former parishioners, those who cannot be with us every week, and those who are just “friends” of Rosary who cared enough to send extremely generous pledges through the mail. Rosary can say we’ve done our part!

ST. PATRICK IRISH FESTIVAL

Today, Sunday, is the annual St. Patrick Irish Festival, from 1 PM until 9 PM at the Center, 58 Parsons, just behind Orchestra Hall. Admission is $3 which includes a raffle ticket for the $1000 raffle. Parking is free. There will be Irish entertainment—music and dancing, bagpipes, etc.—traditional foods including Irish sausage, corned beef and cabbage, ribs, pizza, etc., games for kids, arts and crafts, etc. All this is to help perhaps the best “senior” program in Detroit that provides Detroit seniors with over 2000 meals each year, health services, activities, etc. Let’s support our neighbor, and tell them you’re from Rosary!

SCRIPTURE STUDY

The last meeting of the Scripture study group before the summer break is Monday, June 10 at 7 PM in the Parish House. Texts to be discussed are:

2 Samuel 12: 1 – 13

Luke 7: 36 – 8:3

This would be a great way to get ideas for your personal summer Scripture program.

CELEBRATING CHANGES

Our annual celebration of Rosary friends experiencing changes in their lives—graduation, new schools, retirement, promotion, etc.—will take place after Mass Sunday, June 23. PLEASE let us know the names of anyone who should be included in our celebration.

ROSARY FINANCES

Last weekend, 43 Offertory envelopes were used. The collection totaled $2346. This amount reflects the “first of the month” offerings. We are nearing the end of our fiscal year—June 30. Our finance committee is working on the budget for fiscal 2013-2014, which will probably include an increased weekly offertory goal to meet increased costs.

TOGETHER IN FAITH

After two years of meetings and planning, we have experienced a lull in activities mostly due to Fr. Morand's death and the illness of the Pastor of St. Aloysius/St. Patrick. You will remember, our plans called for talks to develop collaboration with St. Aloysius and St. Patrick. Now that both parishes have administrators in place, discussions will resume. Watch for developments.

PRAYER SERVICE FOR A VIOLENCE-FREE FUTURE

St. Ignatius Catholic Community, a member of the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance, is co-sponsoring a prayer service to offer support to one another as we work to deal with the violence in our City and in the world. The Urban Parish Youth Choir will participate. Sunday, June 9, 4:30 PM at St. Ambrose Catholic Church, 15020 Hampton near East Jefferson and Alter Roads.

EVENTS IN OUR COMMUNITY

--Step Forward Michigan sponsors a tax foreclosure housing fair, Saturday June 15, 10 AM – 2 PM at the Chosen Generations Community Center, 2328 East 7 Mile Road. Certified counselors will be on hand to assist those in danger of losing their homes with grants possible to pay delinquent taxes, mortgage assistance, etc. The assistance is aimed at those hardest hit by the economic downturn. Spread the word. For information: 1 – 866-946-7432

--New Center Park at the corner of West Grand Boulevard and Second announces a summer program for everyone including free movies at 9:30 Wednesdays, Jazz and Blues Thursdays at 6 PM, musical programs at noon Fridays, and a variety of world music Saturdays at different times.

A Sunday Morning in Rosary's Backyard

Before Mass last Sunday, Olivia and Sophia, two members of our religious education program, had a serious discussion in the backyard. A little background to this photo: The statue of Mary came from a suburban parish where it was vandalized. The insurance company didn't want to throw it out. When they called Fr. McAnoy he recalled our mission to be "one with the distressed and alienated," and accepted it. Rosary members built the base for the statue. If you look along the back of the base, you can see the names of the people who build the base—Roberto, etc.

They were deciding about a “stone” heart to be placed in our garden with their names on it, a remembrance of First Communion Sunday.

These young artists even decorate the plain cement heart with personally selected pebbles. This will be a lasting memorial!

At the Same Time---

Joe joins with other Rosary members in adding flowers and beauty to our backyard.
