TOGETHER IN FAITH

Consideration of the Together in Faith process continues. Part of getting to know our friends at St. Aloysius and St. Patrick certainly involves getting to know their administrator, Father Loren---and allowing Fr. Loren to get to know us also. Father has celebrated Mass at Rosary recently, and he plans on joining us again on September 15. This will be an excellent opportunity for “dialog.” Father has hands-on experience with the merger process, having been immersed in it since coming to Detroit earlier this year.

We are still planning a “town meeting” for all Rosary members later in September. This is a “must.” It is vital that all members understand what our future may be. The Archdiocese will be represented at this meeting to add the “official” input. Be prepared to come to listen—but also to question and comment.

ALLIANCE NEWS

The 50/50 raffle tickets for the September 18 are available now. The drawing is less than three weeks away. A one dollar ticket gives you a chance on ½ of the proceeds from ticket sales. See Samantha or Norbert.

Also, we are collecting your contributions toward Rosary’s full page ad in the souvenir booklet for the Alliance’s Harvest Dinner, a major fund raiser. As is our tradition, we accept any donations to allow us to purchase the full page ad. The names of the contributors are listed as loyal supporters of the Alliance.

BIBLE STUDY

Our popular Bible Study group will begin its 10th season a week from Monday—September 9. Plan now to drop by. Why not find some friends to join you? We are inviting our friends from St. Aloysius and St. Patrick to join us. Watch for details next week.

FINANCES

Last week’s offertory collection was $1999. Forty-three envelopes were used.

NEXT WEEKEND IN OUR ROSARY COMMUNITY

Friday, September 6, our friends at St. Elizabeth invite us to their Elegant Evening of Dinner and Jazz, featuring Priscilla Price and her band. The $25 ticket price covers a full dinner as well as the concert. 8 PM to Midnight at the St. Elizabeth Center, 3127 East Canfield. Call 313 921 – 9225 for details.

Saturday, September 7 is the annual Dally in the Alley, a celebration of music, the arts, food and friendship centered in an amazing alley in the Second Blvd and West Forest area. Follow the crowds into the Alley—you will feel transported back to Detroit of many years ago! This is an all-day event and draws thousands of people—and it's in our own parish! Drop by.

YOUR HEALTH MATTERS!

St. Patrick and St. Aloysius Parishes have a health advocacy committee. With the concern of so many Detroiters about good health, they are initiating a program to provide information and programs to keep us all updated on health issues. They have generously invited us to be involved also. Next weekend you will be asked to fill out a very short checklist indicating topics you would find interesting. You do not put your name on the survey and there is no obligation to participate. We need to get some idea of the major concerns of parishioners in the MidTown area. Watch for the checklist.

COMING SOON---FUN!! ?

Part of the diocesan assessment of Rosary's viability involves an inventory of all parish possessions. This means everything in the church and in the parish house. We'd like to form teams to inventory one room or one section of the church, to share the "fun." If we have a good number of volunteers this should not be burdensome for anyone. Watch for a sign-up opportunity.

REST IN PEACE

The funeral Mass for Julian Kidd will be here at Rosary at noon Tuesday, September 3.

Farewell...and Welcome Home!

Elissa Bojanic received the blessing of the Rosary Family as she prepares to leave for medical school in the Philippines.

It was birthday week for Mary Jane and Greg, but we welcome Greg home retiring after many years in the military!

A Family Affair

Sunday's Mass was in memory of Naomi White, and so many of her descendants gathered at Rosary, members of the Oubre, White and Roberts families

It's Coming!

The other morning this strange apparatus was drilling next to the church. Was it fracking? No—they are getting ready to put in new traffic lights, higher up off the ground, because of the light rail coming on Woodward!
