IT'S TIME!

Months and months of discussion about Rosary's future and the merger with St. Aloysius and St. Patrick have reached the point where decisions have to be made. Next Sunday, September 29, after the 10:00 Mass we will have a town hall meeting of all the Rosary Family. At this meeting the options will be clearly laid out (basically merge or close!) and your questions and comments will be heard. It is absolutely vital that EVERYONE who cares about the future of Rosary be at this meeting. Those who attend Saturday Mass will be urged to come back on Sunday morning. We all talk about how important Rosary is to us. Now is the time to show this by coming to the town hall meeting and being counted! The Archdiocese absolutely insists on parish meetings, to be sure everyone understands where we are headed. In preparation for this meeting, we invite you this weekend to jot down any questions you have right now. We will use these to start the discussion next week.

We must realize that there is no way the diocese will let Rosary exist as an independent parish. St. Aloysius and St. Patrick are ready to welcome us as a merger partner. We are under pressure to reach a decision in order for other necessary steps to begin—consolidating councils, finances, etc. BE HERE TO FIND OUT WHAT WE ARE FACING AND TO ADD YOUR INPUT. SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 AFTER THE 10:00 MASS.

BIBLE STUDY

Our Bible Study group will meet in the Parish House Monday, September 23 at 7 PM. The texts to be discussed are;

Ezra 1: 1 – 6

Luke 8: 16 – 18

Everyone is invited. Bring a friend!

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR PEACE

Next Wednesday, September 25, at 7 PM at the St. Bonaventure Chapel, 1780 Mt. Elliott, we are urged to join with others around the world praying for peace. The service will feature remarks by Bishop Gumbleton and the Capuchin Soup Kitchen Choir. We really need to join together to pray for peace. Security and lighted parking are provided.

HELP NEEDED

We are required to complete an inventory of all parish belongings. Our idea is to form teams of two volunteers to select a specific area of the house or church and inventory all parish property located there. Days and times are at the option of each team. Sign up sheets will be available today.

FINANCES

Last week's offertory collection was $1544. Forty-three envelopes were used. If we are going to meet our budget goal, we will have to have about $2200 per week. We can do this!

EVENTS IN OUR COMMUNITY

Today, Sunday: An Afternoon of Irish Entertainment at St. Patrick Church, 2 PM --?? Musicians, dancers, entertainers. $10 for adults, $5 for students. Free parking in the deck across the street from the church. Tell the attendant you are here for the St. Patrick event.

Today also---St. Louis the King Parish, 18891 St. Louis Street @E. 7 Mile near Mound, invites us to their Peach Festival and 90th Anniversary. Music, food, raffle, booths, etc.

Walk for the Poor next Saturday and support the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Walk starts at 9 AM at the Milliken Park on the River and continues up the Dequindre Cut.

The Matrix Theater production of No Child continues weekends through October 13—Fridays and Saturdays at 8 PM and Sundays at 3 PM.

LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL RAFFLE

We are still selling raffle tickets -$1—to support the students at one of the very few Catholic schools in Detroit. Let's concentrate on helping our young people.
