TOGETHER IN FAITH

Our “getting to know you” process continues next weekend. Fr. Loren, administrator of St. Aloysius and St. Patrick parishes will celebrate both Masses here. This will be a great opportunity to meet Fr. Loren and get insight into his perception of our planned merger.

ALLIANCE NEWS

We are invited to the open house of the newest building the Alliance built—8900 Gratiot near McClellan. This is a multi-purpose building which includes the new home for the Capuchin Bakery and Café and five new Headstart classrooms. Take the tour: 5 – 7 PM this Thursday, September 12. Remember also the 50/50 raffle ticket now on sale, and our collection of donations for our full page ad in the souvenir book for the Harvest Dinner.

BIBLE STUDY

The 10th season of Rosary’s Bible Study group begins tomorrow, Monday, September 9 at 7 PM in the Parish House. Everyone is welcome. Feel free to bring friends not members of Rosary. The texts to be discussed this week are:

Colossians 1: 21 – 2:3

Luke 6: 6 – 11

HEALTH SURVEY

After Masses this weekend we will fill out a short checklist on health-related topics. You do NOT have to put your name on the survey. Its purpose is to help the St. Aloysius & St. Patrick Health Advocacy Committee plan events and programs for the three parishes—more Together in Faith! Please take time to complete and return this checklist today.

POLARITY

For many years, Rosary has had bi-weekly polarity therapy sessions. John Bodary, a licensed professional has facilitated these sessions. Polarity is a process aimed at encouraging relaxation and healing. Polarity sessions will begin next week, Thursday, September 19. Appointments are available from morning through late afternoon. Talk to John Bodary for appointments or details. If you want “first-hand” reports about the effects of polarity, talk to Tom Oubre, Pat Roberts or Linda Krupp.

FINANCES

Last week's offertory collection was $1467. Forty-one envelopes were used. Yes, this was Labor Day weekend—but we need to get back on track to meet our financial goal!

PEACE

Pope Francis has called on people of all faiths to dedicate this weekend to prayers for a peaceful solution to the crisis in Syria. The following prayer, prayed by Blessed Pope John Paul II at Hiroshima might be appropriate:

To the Creator of nature and of humanity, of truth and beauty, I pray.

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of victims

Of all wars and violence among individuals and nations.

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all children

Who suffer when people put their faith in weapons and war.

Hear my voice when I beg you to instill into the hearts

Of all human beings the wisdom of peace,

The strength of justice and the joy of fellowship.

Hear my voice, for I speak for the multitudes

In every country and in every period of history

Who do not want war and are ready to walk the road of peace.

Hear my voice, and grant insight and strength

So that we may always respond to hatred with love,

To injustice with total dedication to justice,

To need with sharing of self, to war with peace.

O God, hear my prayer

And grant unto the world your everlasting peace. Amen.

ROSARY GARDEN REPORT

We've been following the progress of our garden all summer. Most of us got to see it during our picnic. Here are the latest photos:

Sister Joan, with or without her neighborhood gardeners, keeps a close eye on the progress of the garden.

This has been a great year for squash!

They tried to hide—but we found them!

36 squash were picked last week, and Sister Joan is rightfully proud!
