AS "CHRISTMAS" ENDS...

Today's feast of the Baptism of Jesus marks the liturgical end of the Christmas season. So....today, after Mass we will take down all our Christmas decorations and store them in the choir loft. Corinne Bojanic spent hours in the choir loft Thursday cleaning, arranging, etc. Before the decorations go up there, we need to check with Corinne. Things need to be carried down for disposal and recycling.

With the end of the Christmas season, we can report the success of our efforts to generate donations for Rosary, either through special gifts from our regular members or from donations sent to Rosary to replace Christmas gifts that would have been given to Rosary members. In addition, Lou Morand's family requested donations to Rosary in his memory. So, Christmas 2013 generated $11, 519.00, including $3986 from the Offertory collections at the two Christmas day Masses. This is truly amazing! For Rosary members, your contributions will be included on the annual statement you will receive near the end of January. Contributions from others will be acknowledged by a special letter, already in the works thanks to Zina. Hopefully these extra donations to Rosary have helped many people realize the importance of their donations to Rosary's many programs.

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $1, 476. Only 26 envelopes were used, since the weather was so bad many people could not make it to church. (We are confident they will make up their missing donations this week!) As we begin 2014, remember to take and use your Offertory envelopes. We have extra boxes if you want to start your children off on the habit of supporting their church, or if you want to make a donation in honor of a friend or loved one. Envelopes are on the table near the front of the church.

BIBLE STUDY

The winter-spring session of Bible study begins this Monday, January 13 at 7 PM in the parish house. The texts to be read and discussed are:

1 Samuel 1: 1 – 8

Mark 1: 14 – 20

Remember your New Year's resolution to join the Bible Study group? Now is an excellent opportunity to live up to your intention! Drop by. You'll find a lot of your friends here and you will be most welcome. Bring friends!

PLANNING AHEAD

Monday, January 20 is the Martin Luther King, Jr. memorial holiday. Why not plan to observe this day in a special way? For example, the University of Michigan and the Coalition for Human Rights are sponsoring a special symposium at the U/M Detroit offices, 3663 Woodward on that day, 10 AM – 3 PM. The keynote speaker is Harry Belafonte. A panel of experts will discuss the “stand your ground” law. Lunch is included. There is no charge for this event. For more information call 313 593 – 3584. Also, the traditional rally and march for peace, jobs and justice will begin at noon at Central United Methodist Church, Woodward at Grand Circus Park. The event will commemorate the Freedom Summer of 1964, as well as the work and legacy of Fannie Lou Hamer. Call 313 405-2185 for details.

ROSARY PRAYERS WORK!

Our friend Wilson sent a recent photo of his brother, for who we have been praying, with his mother and nieces and nephews. His brother's recovery has been remarkable. Let's keep praying!
