OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady of the Rosary is an open Christian Family, a mixture of unique beings in an inner-city setting. Gifted and guided by the Holy Spirit, called in Faith to prayer, love and concern, this apostolic community searches to creatively use its resources to become inviting, loving, healing and one with the distressed/alienated people of today.

THANKS!

Last Sunday we all witnessed an amazing example of the Rosary Parish Family spirit. The relatively simple task of taking down Christmas decorations turned into a large-scale cleaning effort. Our choir loft/balcony has not looked this clean and organized in at least 10 years. People just pitched in to help where they saw a need in dismantling the crib, taking down the tree, packing things up neatly, etc. A huge load of old cardboard boxes was taken out and to recycling. Even Fr. John who celebrated Mass joined in. Thanks to everyone!

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $1, 879. 37 envelopes were used. Thanks to so many who brought the donation they missed last week because of the weather! There are still a few sets of envelopes waiting to be picked up.

PARISH SPIRIT AWARDS

Each year for the past five years the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance has asked parishes of the diocese to name a person who exemplifies the spirit of the parish, a person whose life and ministry speak to all that is good about that parish. This year, again, the awards will be given out February 19. At Masses next weekend we will distribute nomination forms for the person to be chosen to represent Rosary. It cannot be a person who has gotten the award in the past, nor can it be an employee of the parish. Start thinking now!

CONGRATULATIONS!

On February 9, Greer Trotty gave birth to a six pound two ounce baby boy, Miguel Dallas Pareece Mayes-Trotty. Congratulations to Greer and to Grandfather Greg Trotty—and to Great-grandparents Helen and Dallas Trotty. Let's keep them all in our prayers.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. HOLIDAY

The annual Mass on Monday will be at Sacred Heart Seminary this year, 10 AM. (The event mentioned last week with Harry Belafonte has been moved to Ann Arbor.)

SHARING THE LIGHT

We have another letter from the Archbishop, updating us on another aspect of life in our Archdiocese:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord:

From its founding in 1919 to the present, Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit has responded to the Church's ongoing call to prepare men for the priesthood. The primary mission of our Seminary is forming our future priests to share the gospel message and administer the sacraments of salvation. They celebrate the Eucharist, preach and teach the living Word of God, hear confessions, baptize and receive marriage vows, and anoint the sick and dying. The 2013-14 enrollment of 120 seminarians at Sacred Heart is the highest in four decades.

Sacred Heart also prepares deacons and lay ecclesial ministers who selflessly support our pastors who often serve without the help of an associate pastor and sometimes minister to the faithful in multiple parishes. For decades, Sacred Heart has educated and trained lay men and women for ministerial service to the Church of Detroit, their parish communities, and the world. In these times of great challenges to the Church and the faithful, our Seminary is an irreplaceable part of our ability to fulfill our archdiocesan mission priorities, especially increasing priestly vocations, evangelization and catechesis, and lay leadership development.

As a graduate, former dean, former rector-president, and current chairman of the Board of Trustees at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, I am passionate about the presence of Sacred Heart, as are my brother bishops in the Detroit Archdiocese, who teach, attended, or had leadership positions at the Seminary - Bishop Michael Byrnes, Bishop Arturo Cepeda, Bishop Donald Hanchon, and Bishop Francis Reiss. We are committed to strengthen Sacred Heart to respond to our Lord's invitation to train the next generation of lay and ordained leaders who will proclaim his message of love and forgiveness.

I encourage you to learn more about Sacred Heart Major Seminary by visiting my Sharing the Light section on the archdiocesan website at www.aod.org/sharingthelight/SHMS/.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron
Archbishop of Detroit

A SCENE FROM THE PAST

In the far back of our balcony, the old pews from Rosary church in the 20s and 30s still have these notices! PAY UP! The seats at the later Masses are .25, the seats at the earlier Masses are only dime! This policy was the basis for much argument in the diocese until it was banned.

AIM HERE

As the old boxes were literally tossed downstairs, a “landing area” was defined as the target for the Miracle of the Falling Boxes!”

Come to Rosary we'll put you to work!
Father John pitches in with our cleanup!
