PARISH SPIRIT AWARDS

Each year for the past five years the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance has asked parishes of the diocese to name a person who exemplifies the spirit of the parish, a person whose life and ministry speak to all that is good about that parish. This year the awards will be given out February 19. At Masses again this weekend we will distribute nomination forms. We have to have the name of our honoree this week. If you did not get a nomination form last week, be sure to get one this weekend and fill it out in church. Remember, a person previously honored, or an employee of the parish can not be honored again. We have so many who share the Rosary Spirit there should be a lot of nominations.

CHANGING LIVES TOGETHER

Remember this name? A couple of years ago Rosary was poised to take its place in the roster of Detroit parishes involved in this fund raising campaign--but the "powers" decided to delay our participation. Now---it's back! Next weekend you will be getting information packages detailing how you can participate. In a few words—we will be assigned a quota, based on our Offertory contribution record. The Rosary Family will be asked to meet this quote within a three year period through individual pledges. Whatever we collect is split—70% comes back to Rosary for projects and 30% goes to the Archdiocese. A team of parishioners has been working since last fall to make sure this campaign is organized and off to a good start. A thought: Rosary has always carried its share of the burden in campaigns such as the Catholic Services Appeal, earning us a good reputation with the diocese. Let's keep this in mind as we learn more about Changing Lives Together.

REMEMBER IN PRAYER

We were saddened to hear of the death of Edmund Jennings, father of Michael Jennings. Mr. Jennings was buried from St. Mary of Redford Church this weekend. Let's keep Michael and the entire family in our thoughts and prayers.

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $1,115. Only 23 envelopes were used. Obviously the sub-zero temperatures prevented many from coming to church. Just keep in mind—the near-zero temperatures will result in big heating bills. This weekend, again, we have weather issues—lots of snow. Be safe---and remember to bring your missed offertory donations the next time you're here!!!!

AN APOLOGY

Last week's bulletin had a few mistakes in the Happy Birthday section. The editor's brain was functioning at ten below zero to match the weather! For the record, Tuesday was the birthday of Nicole Rottach, (not Michelle), and Saturday we honored Alexia Rowell (not Perkins). Sorry!

IT'S PARTY TIME!

Each February for the last 35+ years, Rosary has hosted a party with a Valentine's Day theme to honor our friends from Adult Foster Care homes in our area. This year it will take place on Sunday, February 16—just two weeks from now. From noon until about 2:30 will welcome our guests and provide entertainment--music and dancing—food and presents. Plans are already well under way. Right now we need YOU to plan to be here after Mass February 16 to help set up tables, prepare and serve food and beverages, greet guests, fill out name tags, etc. The success of a large project such as this depends on a lot of cooperation from the Rosary Family. Most importantly we need you to be here to socialize with our guests—let them know that our “home” is also their home, that we enjoy them being here, etc. Mark your calendars NOW.
