CHANGING LIVES TOGETHER

This is THE DAY, what the Changing Lives Together campaign calls Commitment Weekend. This marks the “official” end of our effort to generate additional money for Rosary projects while still assisting the Archdiocese with its financial obligations. Many Rosary members have turned in pledge cards. Today we would like the rest to fill out pledge cards and return them—either in the Offertory collection or to one of the CLT committee members. It is important that we have a good percentage of participation. Even if we do not reach the suggested goal, having a high percentage of participation will show that we are willing to do something. We know that there are financial considerations and that most Rosary people are doing their best to support our parish through weekly offertory contributions. Take a look at the commitment card. Even a few dollars pledged each month will show that you are cooperating in this effort. We’ll announce the total pledged within the next two weeks.

REST IN PEACE

Mrs. Lonnie Harden died last Sunday. Funeral arrangements are being handled by Pye Funeral Home, 17600 Plymouth near Southfield. Viewing is today, Sunday, from noon until 8 PM. The family hour is at 9:30 AM at the Pye Funeral Home, followed by the funeral service at 10 AM, also at the Pye Funeral Home. There will be a meal after the burial—around 3 PM—at the Gamma Phi Delta Sorority House, West Grand Boulevard just across the street from the Motown Museum. Food contributions would be welcomed. Let’s remember Mrs. Harden and her family in our prayers.

FEAST OF ST. JOSEPH

Wednesday is the Feast of St. Joseph. The St. Joseph Society of the Church of St. Moses the Black invites us to a Mass at 6 PM followed by a spaghetti dinner. St. Moses is in the former Madonna Church, 1125 Oakman Boulevard.

LENT

We invite you to continue your Lenten observances. Daily reading from Scripture certainly will help us focus. Why not join our Bible Study group on Mondays in Lent? 7 PM in the Parish House. This week the texts to be read and discussed are: Daniel 9: 4 – 10 and Luke 6: 36 – 38. Even attending one session will give you ideas about opening the Scripture for your own reading and benefit.

We have had the custom of celebrating the Stations of the Cross twice during Lent, followed by a bread and soup meal. The dates this year are Wednesday, March 26 and Wednesday, April 9 at 6 PM. We will be inviting you to bring some of a favorite home-made soup to share. Watch for details—but pencil in these dates so you will plan to be here.

Don't forget your Rice Bowl offering box for spare change—and bills!—to be turned in at Easter time.

Fish Dinners during Lent are a tradition. Sacred Heart Parish and St. Peter Claver are two parishes with Friday fish fries. Our neighbor Mother of Divine Mercy Parish (formerly Sweetest Heart of Mary) has Lenten dinners every Friday during Lent—3 – 8 PM in the parish hall 4400 Russell at East Canfield.

FINANCES

Last weekend 47 Offertory envelopes were used. The collection amounted to $1823. Thanks to everyone who turns in envelopes for Sundays they were unable to be here!

KEEP IN MIND

- 50/50 tickets are still available. The drawing is Wednesday.
- Polarity Therapy is Thursday in the Parish House by appointment.

ALTERNATIVE SPRING BREAK PROGRAM

Universities throughout the U.S. are offering their students a chance to do something productive during spring break...traveling to other cities and assisting in a variety of on-going programs working to better society. In Detroit this week, several universities were represented with students working as mentors, rebuilding homes, etc. Rosary was fortunate to be host to 12 students from the University of Miami who spent the week assisting the work at Focus Hope. They stayed in our parish house and had the opportunity to experience first-hand a Detroit snowstorm. 9 of the students, from Florida had never been in a snow storm. The ones from Tennessee, New Jersey and Belgium provided “insight” into dealing with Michigan-type weather.
