STATIONS AND SOUP

A Rosary Lenten tradition returns this Wednesday, March 26 at 6 PM. We will celebrate the Stations of the Cross. Following this we will gather for a simple meal—soup and bread. Those who have been participating in the event find it meaningful and refreshing. We invite those who can to bring some homemade soup to share. There is no need to bring enough soup for the 40 or 50 people who will be here. We have enjoyed sampling a wide variety of soups. There will be a sign up sheet at Masses this weekend, just to give us an idea of how many people will be bringing soup. There will be enough, so be sure to be here regardless if you bring soup or not.

BIBLE STUDY GROUP

A reminder: Our Bible Study sessions are being held every Monday evening in Lent at 7 PM in the parish house. Everyone is welcome. This is a great way to celebrate Lent—by opening the weekly Scripture by reading, discussion and prayer. This week the group will focus on:

2 Kings 5: 1 – 14

Luke 4: 24 – 30

PETITIONS

The Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance is working with groups seeking to put the issue of raising the minimum wage on the ballot. Petitions will be available for your signature after Masses this weekend. Remember to be careful as you sign: each county has a different petition sheet. The Alliance supports the idea that the present minimum wage does not keep workers above the poverty line. Sister Joan Baustian will have petitions for the signatures of those interested after Masses this weekend.

FINANCES

Last weekend 43 Offertory envelopes were used. The collection amounted to $1889. Thanks to everyone who turns in envelopes for Sundays they were unable to be here!

REST IN PEACE

We learned this week of the death of Paul Rybicki. Paul and his wife frequently worshipped here and for several years conducted sessions after Mass as part of our adult religious education program. These sessions were very popular. Paul shared his personal spirituality, his love of Scripture and prayer, and his concern for the Church in Detroit with us all. Paul had been a member of the Basilian order, a teacher at St. Cecilia School, St. Martin de Porres High School, Holy Redeemer School and Assumption School. He worked with disadvantaged youth in many settings. Let's keep Paul and his wife Vicki in our prayers.

MATRIX THEATER NEWS

Our friends Shaun and Wes Nethercott share news of an upcoming production at their Matrix Theater. Are You Passing is a play actually written by the talented Matrix Teen Company. It focuses on schools in Detroit—schools are closing, teacher turnover is at an all-time high, constant testing has become the norm. Amid all this, so many students are being left behind. The Matrix teens tell their story of struggling to be heard in a system that is in chaos. The production opens April 4 and runs through April 13—Fridays and Saturdays at 8 PM, Sundays at 3 PM.

GREETINGS!

Our friend Sister Catharina sends greetings from Adrian. She misses us all. She is doing very well and follows the adventures of Rosary through the weekly bulletins and through her friends. She assures us that as we celebrate the Stations Wednesday evening, she will be joining us “long-distance” at the same time, in Adrian! Let's keep her in our prayers.
