CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

We are entering the “serious business” phase of the CSA campaign. To date we have gotten about $1800 in donations; our goal is $ 7000. This means we are at the 27% level—not even half way yet. Many people have not yet gotten their pledge card, so this explains some of the problem. Please accept your card this weekend and think seriously about what you can do to help us reach this mandatory goal.

MARCHING—AND WORSHIPPING IN THE COLD!

Last weekend was unbelievably cold for May. The temperature Saturday night was in the 30s. Hopefully winter is finally over; we’re in the 70s this weekend. The contract for repairing the boiler has been worked out and repairs will start soon (in time for the August cold spell, right?). Even the Mothers Marching for Speech didn’t let the cold stop them. The delegation arrived at Rosary around 10—just as Mass started. They paused in our backyard and refreshed themselves. They send their appreciation to all supporters at Rosary.

CHANGING LIVES TOGETHER

By now you should have received a letter confirming your pledge. Please respond by designating how you will send in your payment. There are many options. Note: Rosary will not be handling any payments. All payments are by mail or on-line.

FINANCES

Last weekend our count of Offertory envelopes was 40. ! The collection amounted to $1857. Let’s keep aiming for our budget goal...at least $2200 per week. There are only six more Sundays in this fiscal year and we are really trying to show “everyone” that Rosary can meet its budget!

CLEANUP—PART 1

Nest Saturday, May 31, we invite everyone—and their friends and families—to join us as we begin a systematic cleaning of the church, in preparation for our 125 anniversary celebration this fall. We are only designating two hours per session—10 AM to noon. Bring any cleaning supplies you might find helpful!

CONGRATULATIONS

Two priests who are long-time friends of Rosary are celebrating important anniversaries of their priesthood this month. Fr. Tom Lumpkin is observing his 50th anniversary. Fr. Jim O'Reilly is celebrating his 70th. Let's keep these great priests in our thoughts and prayers.

DETROIT CATHOLIC PASTORAL ALLIANCE NEWS

Thanks to everyone who came to the Alliance Dinner last week and showed our support for their work. We will have a petition for those interested this weekend calling for the establishment of a Detroit Community Benefit Agreement Ordinance. This is a call for development enterprises that receive grants, tax abatements and other public money to be more responsive to the residents of the areas of development—job opportunities, environmental mitigation, housing assistance, etc.

IRISH FESTIVAL

Our friends at St. Patrick Senior Center invite us to their annual Irish Festival, Sunday June 8, 1 – 9 PM. Admission is $3 adult, $1 child. All the popular events will be there: Irish music and dancing, games, fun for kids, Profits go to help the Senior Center outreach to area seniors.
