REMEMBER!

In order to allow our clustering process to work, from now on our Sunday Mass will be at 9:30. This ½ hour change will allow the celebrant of the Mass to be at the Cathedral for the 11:00 AM Mass there.

MEET DEACON WRIGHT

Deacon John Wright will be assisting at Masses here from time to time, beginning this Sunday when he will be on the altar with Fr. Greg and our Ministers of Service. Deacon John has an extensive background in Detroit. He is married with four children and six grandchildren. For forty years he worked in the health care area, providing services to those needing specialized equipment at home—oxygen, wheelchairs, and beds as well as artificial limbs and braces. After years of study, he was ordained to the permanent diaconate in 2007. He has been assigned to Sts. John and Paul Parish in Washington, MI. Here he has been involved in prayer groups, prison ministry, hospital visits as well as liturgical functions in the parish. He serves on boards for many institutions including Wayne State's Applebaum Center, and Lighthouse of Oakland County. Now that he is retired from his employment he looks forward to more involvement at Rosary. Take time to get to know Deacon Wright and welcome him to Rosary.

WATER PROBLEMS?

If you know someone having problems with an overdue water bill, spread the word about the THAW Water Hotline—877 646 – 2831, Assistance is available for customers who meet the income guidelines, live in a Detroit home and have received a shut off notice. Various options are available based on family size, participation in public assistance programs, etc. This Detroit Residential Water Assistance Program aims at providing some assistance in paying overdue bills and in giving customers helpful advice about budgeting.

FINANCES

Last weekend $1478 was donated in the Offertory Collection. 37 envelopes were used. It should be noted that the above total includes “loose” contributions—those placed in the collection baskets. We stress the number of envelopes used because this is a statistic the archdiocese refers to. This might be the “hot-weather” slump...but the bills keep coming! Be sure to make up for donations for weeks you can't make it to church!

KEEP IN MIND

* The deal on tickets to the Tigers' game on August 16 is still going on. Check last week's bulletin for details.

*Ms. Margaret Keyes is doing well recovering from hip replacement. If you want to send a card: Evergreen Health and Living Center, 19933 W. 13 Mile Rd., Room 409 Southfield, MI 48034.

*The On the Rise Bakery sponsored by the Capuchins has moved to a beautiful new building—8900 Gratiot, 3 blocks south of the I 94 exit at Gratiot. Sandwiches as well baked goods are available. *There are plans for a “cluster picnic” for the three parishes in our cluster—Blessed Sacrament, St. Moses the Black and Rosary—Sunday, August 10 on Belle Isle—Shed 2. There will be Mass on the island at 1 PM followed by picnic fun. Watch for details—but mark your calendar.

*Do not forget Rosary's 125th anniversary dinner, Saturday September 27. Details about time, ticket prices, etc. are coming soon!

HOW THINGS GET DONE AT ROSARY!

The curtains separating the chapel from the main church were looking pretty worn, so we were fortunate to get a donation of some nice new curtains. How were they hung?

Tom and Koro went right to work, with encouragement from Darlene behind the curtains and cheers from Malik in front. THANKS!!
