125!

Our anniversary dinner should be splendid! We are almost at capacity-over 200 guests! One practical suggestion: Consider carpooling. This would make it easier for parking. You probably notice many changes in Rosary's appearance—basically for the anniversary celebration. Overgrown bushes have been trimmed or removed. Notice how vibrant the colors in the stained glass windows are now when the sun can come right through, unfiltered. The new light bulbs have brightened up the inside of the church. We will need some assistance on another project: painting the walls in the bathroom area and in the entrance area there. Corinne Bojanic will be here with paint and brushes at 10 AM Thursday. With three or four workers, this job should only take a couple of hours—if that! There will be sign up sheets this week and next for dinner guests who would like to help with various dinner-related duties: welcoming guests, assisting guests up the steps, being “on duty” at appetizer/dessert tables, etc. We are hoping we'll have enough Rosary friends willing to put in a few minutes helping make the evening a success. Remember, there will be NO 5:15 MASS SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27. NEXT!! We will barely be finished with the celebration when our focus turns to liturgy. Sunday, October 5 at 9:30 the anniversary Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Gumbleton. We are planning a potluck meal after the Mass. Start thinking about this now. Watch for details.

POLARITY THERAPY

On Thursday, September 18, we will resume Polarity Therapy in the Parish House. There are a few openings in the morning and in the afternoon. If you are interested, or if you want more details, let John Bodary know so he can fill in his schedule. 313 584 – 3547.

ADULT RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

We would like to invite our friends who worship with us and who perhaps have never been baptized to consider attending information/ preparation sessions we are planning. The timing can be arranged to fit your schedule. Also, if you have never made your First Communion, or been confirmed, feel free to join this group. Give your name to Norbert.

FINANCES

Last weekend $ 2,123 was donated in the Offertory Collection. 39 envelopes were used.

50/50 RAFFLE

Raffle tickets for the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance drawing on September 17 are available. The drawing is Wednesday!! Get your tickets this weekend. Will Rosary have another winner? Tickets are $1—and you get a chance of winning a prize that is always more than $400. See Samantha or Norbert after Mass today.

SACRED HEART CHORAL ENSEMBLE

The Sacred Heart Parish Chorale Ensemble presents a 67th Anniversary Celebration, “It’s All for Your Glory,” next Sunday, September 21 at 3 PM at Sacred Heart Church, 1000 Eliot Street. This concert will be special, celebrating the 30 years of the music ministry of the director, John Thorne. John is a good friend of Rosary and it would be wonderful if a lot of Rosary members attend this celebration. Mark it on your calendar!

LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL RAFFLE

Our friend Fr. James O’Reilly sent us a few tickets for the annual raffle for Loyola High School. This year the ticket cost is $2. (It had been $5.) Prizes range from $500 to $100. We’ll have tickets for the next few weeks. Think about supporting this great school.
