125!

We have come to the point where months of planning and work will fall into place. Next Saturday, September 27, is our grand anniversary dinner celebration, 5 – 9 PM. There is no 5:15 Mass that day. We have over 250 guests planning to be here. A few procedural matters:

- With the construction on Woodward and the large numbers of cars, we have valet parking set up, with a professional, insured company. Please approach the church on the Edsel Ford Service Drive. Valets will take your car to a secure, guarded lot.
- Enter through the Woodward front entrance. You will be greeted and your reservation will be confirmed. Table assignments will be provided.
- Before the dinner you will have the opportunity to greet so many friends as you snack on appetizers and enjoy a beverage. A slide show of photos from Rosary's past will be running throughout this time.
- After the dinner we will have entertainment by the famous Chenille Sisters. We invite you to continue to socialize until around 9 PM.

At Mass today we will need some help with moving chairs, since the church is to be cleaned and rented tables and chairs will be arriving. Listen for further requests. We are looking forward to this evening!

ANNIVERSARY MASS

Sunday, October 5, Bishop Gumbleton will celebrate our 125th anniversary Mass at 9:30. We will need a lot of help with the potluck refreshments planned after Mass.

BIBLE STUDY

Our Bible Study group meets Monday at 7 PM in the Parish House. Everyone is welcome. This week the texts to be read and discussed are:

Proverbs 21: 1 – 13

Luke 8: 19 – 21

FINANCES

Last weekend $ 2,207 was donated in the Offertory Collection. 35 envelopes were used.

SACRED HEART CHORAL ENSEMBLE

The Sacred Heart Parish Chorale Ensemble presents a 67th Anniversary Celebration, "It's All for Your Glory," today, September 21 at 3 PM at Sacred Heart Church, 1000 Eliot Street. This concert will be special, celebrating the 30 years of the music ministry of the director, John Thorne. Try to be there!

LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL RAFFLE

Our friend Fr. James O'Reilly sent us a few tickets for the annual raffle for Loyola High School. This year the ticket cost is $2. (It had been $5.) Prizes range from $500 to $100. We'll have tickets for the next few weeks. Think about supporting this great school.

GREETINGS FROM A FRIEND IN HAITI

We remember Bedel Desruisseaux, a student from Haiti who studied at CCS this winter and worshipped with us. He sends greetings: "I am fine and hope you are all well. I am done with all my classes and am working on a final project to present at my home university. I will graduate January 17, 2015. I may come back to Wayne State University for a master's. I want to come to Rosary, too. I really like this church. Keep in touch."

REMEMBER IN PRAYER

We have learned of the death of Father Michael Evans, a Jesuit priest, the brother of Susan Amman. Susan and her family were extremely involved at Rosary thirty years ago, and still keep in touch. Let's keep Fr. Evans and his family in our prayers.
