125!

One more time---125 years! Today we celebrate this anniversary liturgically, with a special Mass celebrated by Bishop Gumbleton. Monsignor LeFevre and Deacon John Wright will be here to add to the occasion. This is almost the exact date of the first Mass in Rosary church---October 7, 1889. Let's remember the thousands of people who have worshipped at Rosary and who have helped make up the family we are today. After Mass, everyone is invited to share a lunch, to meet old and new friends, and to share Rosary stories. A short update on the anniversary dinner last weekend: We had 250 guests, excellent food, great music by our Rosary ensemble and the Chenille Sisters. The church and grounds literally sparkled. So much hard work went into making this a success. We had two main difficulties to overcome---the construction in front of the church and the hundreds of cars heading to the Cultural Center for the DElectric exhibition---and we successfully dealt with both! Thanks to everyone who participated in any way!

OCTOBER---THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY!

Especially during October, we encourage Rosary friends to pray the Rosary. If you need a Rosary, we can provide one. There is so great a need for prayer in our world today. Let's dedicate these thirty-one days of October to join in praying the Rosary. Traditionally a small group gathers before the Saturday Mass to pray together. Join them if you can.

CELEBRATIONS AT NEIGHBORING PARISHES

St. Elizabeth Parish is having a Homecoming weekend. Saturday, October 26 there will be an open house at the parish (3138 E. Canfield) beginning at 1 PM. A dinner dance will be held at 6:30. Tickets are $25 at the door. On Sunday October 27, Mass will be followed by a brunch ($7).

Good Shepherd Parish (1265 Parkview) is featuring "All That Jazz---an Evening of Entertainment" Sunday, October 26 at 4 PM. An impressive line-up of singers, musicians and comedians will perform. Tickets are $20. Their famous broasted chicken dinners will be available for takeout after the performance ($10).

FINANCES

Last weekend $ 1,477 was donated in the Offertory Collection. 38 envelopes were used. Of course, there was only the Sunday Mass, and many people were so involved in the anniversary celebration they forgot their offertory envelopes----right???

A REQUEST FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS

Perhaps you remember Svetlana, a Russian immigrant who gave art lessons to many of our transient members a couple of years ago. She still keeps in touch. She has sent us two lists of names for prayer. This week we'll print the names of deceased friends: Vladimir, Antonina, Alexander, Anatoly, Ivan, Efrosinia, Yacoy, Ivan, Tatuana, Anna, Nicolay, Victor and Galina. Please include this intention—the repose of the souls of Sveltana's friends—in your prayers. Isn't it wonderful that a friend who passed through Rosary thinks so highly of the power of Rosary prayers!!!

FREE FLU SHOTS FOR ADULTS

Free flu shots for adults only will be available Thursday, October 16 from 10 AM until noon—while supplies last. Sacred Heart Parish Activities Building, sponsored by the Detroit Medical Center.

FOCUS HOPE

For over 45 years, Focus Hope has been fighting racism, poverty and injustice. A major fundraiser is the Walk for Hope, held this year next Sunday, October 12, beginning at 1355 Oakman Boulevard. Registration starts at 11 AM. Instead of a registration fee, walkers are asked to obtain sponsorships from friends to support the walk. Rosary has a tradition of supporting this walk. Who's walking this year/??
