GOOD NEWS

Mrs. Louise Adams is out of the hospital, in a rehab facility. She is doing very well. Her family tells us her mind is as sharp as ever and her spirit is great. Let's keep praying.

MISSION SUNDAY

The annual collection for the Missions is still being taken up. Please consider all the good done by missionaries for the Church and for the people of the world. The pink envelopes are very visible—take one and please be generous!

MASS COUNT

Again this weekend we are counting the worshippers at our two Masses. This count is being done in all churches of the diocese. There will be two people counting at each Mass—to be sure the figures agree. Especially on Sunday, if you see the count in progress, try not to move around for a few minutes. This will make it easier to arrive at accurate figures.

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $1995. 45 envelopes were returned. It's good to get closer to our weekly goal of around $2200 per week.

DETROIT CATHOLIC PASTORAL ALLIANCE NEWS

We are reminded of the election November 4. There are many critical issues to be decided. This week we will introduce a clever “reminder” activity to help us be sure to vote November 4. Watch for it!

BIBLE STUDY

Our Bible Study group meets Monday at 7 PM in the parish house. Texts to be read and discussed are:

Ephesians 4: 32 – 5:8

Luke 13: 10 – 17

MATRIX THEATER NEWS

Shaun Nethercott and the Matrix team are really busy. Urban Arts Documented is an exhibition coinciding with the annual Great Lakes Bioneers Conference at Marygrove College. Local and regional artists whose creative endeavors focus on environmental, ecological and community issues will be featured—including Matrix. The exhibit at Marygrove runs through November 28—4th floor of the Liberal Arts Building.

A real treat this Thursday and Friday only: Haunted Theater presents 2730, written and performed by the Matrix teens. Especially for Halloween, this “scare-fest melding history with horror” explores the scary past of the theater building itself. This Thursday and Friday 9 PM at the Matrix Theater 2730 Bagley. $8 for adults, $ 5 for students.

DON'T FORGET

Our Friends at Good Shepherd Church are sponsoring their “All That Jazz” spectacular at 4 PM today (Sunday). Why not drop by to support the church and to enjoy an impressive list of musicians, singers and comedians?
