VOTE

Remember that this Tuesday, November 4, is election day. There are many important issues to be decided. Elections give us a good opportunity to express the values of our Faith. Thanks to the Rosary young people who stepped up at Mass last Sunday to remind us to vote!

MISSION SUNDAY

Our Mission Sunday collection has amounted to $266 so far. We are still accepting contributions. Now let's remember to keep the missions in our prayers.

MASS COUNT

For the last two weekends we participated in the diocesan Mass Count. For your information, here are the attendance figures for the two Saturdays and Sundays:

Saturdays	25	27
Sundays	86	135

Take a moment to reflect on these figures. The low Sunday count could have been due to the Marathon downtown, the Lions game, or ????

We know that we often have close to 250 at a regular Mass. Let's think about the need to come together as a parish family, to experience the "wholeness" of our Rosary family. Is there something you can do to boost attendance?

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $2672. 50 envelopes were returned. Part of this was, of course, due to envelopes from the previous week being turned in. It's good that we surpassed our weekly goal of $2200 set in our annual budget. Let's keep it up!

ALL SOULS CHORAL MASS

There is an All Souls Day Mass at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral at 4 PM today, celebrated by Archbishop Vigneron. The Archdiocesan Chorus and several parish choirs, and an orchestra will perform Durufle's Requiem. Free will offering.

SALESIAN HIGH SCHOOL

A group of alumni from Salesian High School Class of 1964 will be with us at our regular 5:15 Mass next Saturday. Salesian High took over the Rosary School buildings on Harper when our school closed. We are happy to welcome this group---another “anniversary” in this year of anniversaries!

HELP WANTED

Two groups have asked us to publicize job openings:

Good Shepherd Catholic Church in Detroit is seeking a professional Secretary/Business Manager to coordinate daily parish office activities. Our preference would be a seasoned and (semi-) retired person whose salary will be attractive, but who will not need health insurance coverage. Must be computer literate in Microsoft Word and Publisher.

Qualified persons are asked to contact Good Shepherd Catholic Church by telephone at 313 822 1262. Resumes can be sent via facsimile transmission to 313 822 7578 (attn: Father Michael Nkachukwu). The application deadline is Wednesday, December 31, 2014.

The Detroit Police Department is inviting Faith Communities in Detroit to help recruit candidates for Police Officer in Detroit. Applicants must be 18 or over, have a driver’s license and a high school diploma or GED, and no felony convictions. For an application or more information contact the Human Resources Department/Recruiting, 1301 Third Street, Detroit 48226 313 596 – 2607. Walk-in applicants are welcome, Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM – 2:30 PM. No appointment needed. Business attire.

Last Sunday our young people urged us to remember to vote this week. They went around the congregation, after the plan was described, handing out pledge cards to voters. VOTE TUESDAY!

Halloween

Meaghan and McKenzie were going to a Halloween party at the Detroit Historical Museum, so they came to Mass in their “party clothes!”
