CATHOLIC CHARITIES

This weekend, Catholics throughout the Archdiocese are donating to the collection for Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan (CCSEM). There are great needs right here in our area. This recent cold weather has focused awareness on the homeless and on those with barely enough to survive. There are so many long-term situations involving services to seniors, support for families, mental health issues, substance abuse counseling. The list of needs is long—but we can do something about this. For the first time there is a collection addressing needs right here. What a wonderful time of year for this outreach—Thanksgiving. As we celebrate in thankfulness for God’s blessings, let’s share some of our blessings with those in need. Archbishop Vigneron reminded us of our “commitment to accompany God’s people through the trials of life.” Envelopes are available today. Please be generous.

REST IN PEACE

A very special friend of Rosary, Fr. Jerome Singer, died Thursday. He was a frequent visitor here—celebrating Mass when we needed a priest, joining us for Alliance events, etc. He was Pastor of Nativity of Our Lord parish—where many of us went for Lenten fish fries, cooked by Fr. Singer himself. He was a close friend of Fr. McAnoy and Fr. Morand, joining Fr. Morand each week on the golf course. There will be visitation Monday, November 24 from 1 – 8 PM at the Verheyden Funeral Home, 16300 Mack, with a Scripture Service at 7 PM. Father will lie in repose at Nativity, 5900 McClellan (just off Gratiot) Tuesday beginning at noon. The funeral Mass will be celebrated at 6 PM. It would be good to see representation from Rosary. Let’s remember Fr. Singer and the people of Nativity in our prayers.

BIBLE STUDY

Our regular program of Bible Study continues Monday, November 24 at 7 PM in the Parish House. This week, the focus will be on Psalm 77. This promises to be a unique and enlightening evening. Please join us, even if would be your first time. Bring a friend!

FINANCES

Last weekend, $1,736 was contributed. 49 envelopes were used.

ADVENT IS COMING

With the celebration of the Feast of Christ the King this weekend, the liturgical year ends. Next weekend we begin Advent. Plan now to make Advent 2014 more meaningful than others, so Christmas can truly find us all better people. A few ideas for your planning:

--Our friends at St. Moses the Black parish invite us to join them for an Advent Day of Prayer and Healing next Saturday, Nov. 29, 10:30 – 1: 30 at the church, 1125 Oakman Blvd.

--We are planning our own Advent “retreat” here at Rosary on Saturday, Dec. 13. You will want to be here! Watch for details.

--We will have the blue Advent books from the Diocese of Saginaw available for you next weekend.

--A group of concerned Detroiters of all backgrounds plans a one-day “Haircuts for Homeless” just before Christmas. Rosary is a sponsor of this plan. We will need a few people to drop by the site (downtown—Capital Park area) to observe and “represent” Rosary. Details soon.

--Think NOW about making Rosary the recipient of some of your Christmas gifts. For the last two years we have encouraged you to ask friends and relatives to donate to Rosary rather than give you a present. Let’s see if we can expand this gesture this year. It’s not too early—talk to family and friends before shopping starts, and tell them you plan to donate to Rosary in their honor.

A FEW REMINDERS

- Raffle tickets for the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance are available. The drawing is December 17.
- Don’t forget the Matrix Theater’s current production Rapture, Bliss, Burn, weekends through Dec. 7.

ARCHBISHOP VIGNERON AT ROSARY

A bus load of “pilgrims” toured various churches in Detroit November 22, and ended at Rosary for Mass celebrated by Archbishop Vigneron.

Deacon John Wright and Jean-Marie Allion represented Rosary on the altar.

The tour group enjoyed the “Rosary experience.”
