THANKS!

So many people helped make Christmas week at Rosary a really memorable time. It's impossible to "name names" without leaving someone out. However, we are truly grateful to those who:

- Helped clean and decorate the church
- Donated food and money for our Christmas baskets
- Set up and packed the Christmas baskets
- Greeted guests and distributed the baskets
- Delivered baskets
- Made our worship Christmas Eve and Christmas Day so memorable by presiding at the liturgies, serving as Ministers, reading Scripture, delivering significant homilies, assisting with seating, collections, etc., and just by being here with their families and friends
- Came in from out of town to be with us
- Allowed us to witness the exuberance of young children
- Guarded our parking lot
- Used their vocal and instrumental talents to let music add to our joy
- Brought baked goods for our coffee hours
- Arranged for extra donations from family and friends
- Gave of themselves, in whatever way, to spread Christmas joy.

One name, however, needs to be mentioned: Sister Joan Baustian. For literally six weeks she has worked tirelessly on Rosary's Christmas projects. Her spirit and dedication inspire us all!

FINANCES

Last weekend, December 20 and 21, $ 1775 was contributed. 47 envelopes were used. The new envelopes for 2015 are forthcoming...

NEW YEAR'S DAY

There will be one Mass for the cluster of Rosary, St. Moses the Black and Blessed Sacrament. This will be at the Cathedral Thursday morning at 11. Why not make the effort to start 2015 at Mass?

NEWS FROM OLD FRIENDS

The Christmas season always brings news of Rosary friends who are out of town—and even out of the country!

- Yates and Gail Hafner send best wishes from Chicago. They keep up with Rosary through the bulletin.
- Bedel Desruisseaux, the Haitian student who was with us last winter sends greetings from Haiti. He is graduating January 17. He misses Rosary.
- Lorraine McCarty also misses Rosary. She is living at the Ambassador Nursing Center on East Jefferson near VanDyke. She is happy to see the two or three Rosary people who visit her, but wishes there were more.
- Joyce Lewis sends greetings from Atlanta. Her happy memories of Rosary (and St. Theresa) are very much alive!
- Burma Gilchrist is doing very well. Her arthritis keeps her from coming to Rosary regularly—but she promises she will be here soon. Her memories of 50+ years at Rosary are priceless!
