ANNUAL VALENTINE'S DAY PARTY

Next Sunday, February 15, is the day for our annual party for residents of area adult foster care homes. Lately, we have also welcomed people in transition in our neighborhood—those the Pope referred to this week as “pilgrims.” The fun will start right after Mass. So much has already been done: food has been ordered, Dave Greenwood is in place with the music, there are small gifts for guests, etc. Now we need the Rosary family to be here to demonstrate hospitality to our guests. If you choose, you can help with setting up, serving food, greeting guests, etc. Or, you can simply socialize with the guests. The party runs until 2:30. Please stop by, if even for a few minutes.

BIBLE STUDY

Our Bible study group will meet Monday at 7 PM in the Parish House. Everyone is welcome. The texts to be discussed are:

Genesis 1: 20 – 2: 4a

Mark: 7: 1 – 13

FINANCES

Last weekend, $ 1,338 was contributed. 30 envelopes were used. An additional $165 was contributed for the Heating and Lighting expenss. So many people chose not to be here last Sunday, as the 16 ½ inches of snow we ultimately received was starting to fall. This explains the unusually small collection. This weekend would be a good chance to “catch up.”

LEONARD!

We have Leonard's new address and information:

Leonard Gross, 2840 Wisconsin Street # 215 St. Louis, MO 63123

He still has his Detroit phone number: 313 648 – 3845. E mail is

CELEBRATE OUR AFRICAN-AMERICAN CATHOLIC HERITAGE

Especially in the month of February, we pause to honor the gifts African American Catholics have brought, and continue to bring to the Church. This weekend we are making available a special prayer for this celebration, and an essay on Courage focusing on Saint Josephine Bakhita as an inspiration of courage for us all. Take time to reflect on these.

DECISION TIME!

Might singing in the Rosary Choir be one more way you can use your talents to benefit our church? Our Choir is in the process of tightening up its structure. You do not have to have a trained singing voice. Just add your sounds to those of the other singers. Choir practice is most Sundays for a few minutes after Mass. Now that we are getting out a little earlier, this should be a convenient time. Think seriously about joining the choir. Make the decision TODAY to become a part of the Choir. Talk to Alton.

“COME AND SEE” IN ADRIAN

In this year dedicated to the Consecrated Life, the Adrian Sisters invite young single women to spend a weekend discerning if they have a call to religious life as Dominican Sisters. The weekend runs from 4 PM Friday, Feb. 20 through lunch on Sunday, Feb. 22. For details or to make a reservation, call Sister Durstynne Farnan 517 266 – 3537.
