LENT

Lent begins Wednesday, Ash Wednesday. We will have Mass at noon with the distribution of ashes. Rosary has resources to make this Lent a meaningful spiritual experience for you:

- The books from the Diocese of Saginaw are available. They provide daily Scriptural passages and thought-provoking articles
- The Rice Bowl folders are again available. The idea is to collect change each day (empty your pockets!) and deposit in the cardboard box, then bring the offering to church on Holy Thursday or Easter.
- Plan now to attend our Lenten Day of Prayer on February 28. Details next week.

VALENTINE'S DAY PARTY

Don't forget our annual party for residents of adult foster care homes and "pilgrims" in our neighborhood—Today, Sunday February 15, 11:30 – 2:30. Be here to enjoy the party—and help!

FINANCES

Last weekend, $ 2,168 was contributed. 50 envelopes were used. Thanks to so many friends who "caught up" for missing the previous week due to snow.

PARISH SPIRIT AWARD

As announced a couple of weeks ago, Sister Joan Baustian is Rosary's recipient of the annual Parish Spirit Award given by the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance. The award ceremony will be tomorrow, Monday, at 6:30 at Sacred Heart Church. Following the ceremony there will be a reception (with food!) in the activities building. Sister Joan has touched all of our lives here at Rosary in so many ways. She has been an inspiration through her unselfish dedication. Let's have a good Rosary turnout at the award ceremony Monday evening to show our appreciation for Sister Joan.

CHURCH IN EASTERN EUROPE

For the last several years, an annual collection has been taken up to assist the Catholic Church in the countries of Eastern Europe formerly dominated by Communist governments. Rebuilding is a slow but sure process. Envelopes are available this weekend for offerings to help this “re-start” of the Church in these countries.

HELP NEEDED

Our friend Sandi Combs and her husband Kenny Brinkley are facing eviction from their home. Their friends and the Detroit Eviction Defense organization are sponsoring a fund-raiser Thursday, February 19th at Bert’s Marketplace entertainment complex in the Eastern Market, on Russell just south of Wilkins. A long list of bands and artists will be performing. Sandi has done a lot for Rosary—most recently out 125th anniversary banners and souvenir booklet. Let’s get together and spend an evening helping her save her home. The benefit runs from 8 – 11 PM.

MATRIX THEATER

A new production at Matrix opens next weekend: Best of Enemies. This play tells the true story of a Ku Klux Klan leader and an African-American civil rights activist brought together in 1971 dealing with desegregation of the schools in Durham, North Carolina. Two opposing positions are forced to confront the best and worst in themselves. Performances Feb. 20 – March 15, Fridays and Saturdays at 8, Sundays at 3 PM.
