LENT

As we move deeper into Lent, please consider these activities to make this a more meaningful Lent:

- As is our custom during Lent, the Bible Study group will meet every Monday at 7:00 PM in the Parish House. The texts being studies this week are—

- Daniel 3: 34 – 43
- Matthew 18: 21 - 35

Join us to deepen together our relationship with the Word of God. Everyone is welcome. Bring a friend.

- Next weekend the annual collection for Catholic Relief Services will be taken up. The theme is “Help Jesus in Disguise.” The Catholic Relief Services, besides working directly with world-wide relief projects, also funds the Department of Migration and Refugee Services, the Catholic Legal Immigration Network, the Department of Peace, Justice and Human Development, and the Holy Father’s Relief Fund which responds quickly to victims of natural disasters. Envelopes are available this weekend. Think about the tremendous need around the world and be generous!

OPEN HOUSE

Parents considering Catholic education for their children would want to attend the open house at Gesu School Sunday, March 15, from noon – 2 PM. Gesu is located at 17139 Oak Drive in Detroit, across from the U/D Mercy campus. Gesu has excellent programs for elementary grades. Spread the word to other parents looking for quality education.

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $1,660. 45 envelopes were used.

KEEP IN PRAYER

Deacon Bob Delbeke, who served Rosary for several years, especially working with the “pilgrims” in our community, suffered a heart attack Friday. He and his wife were on vacation in the Florida Keys, visiting his daughter. He was taken to a hospital in Miami. A double bypass will be performed tomorrow (Monday). Let’s keep him and his wife in our special prayers. Bob knows the power of Rosary prayers!

KEEP IN MIND

St. Moses the Black parish invites us to their Lenten Scripture and reflection series. Next Saturday, Deacon Alex Jones will address the theme, “How welcoming is your parish?” 10:30 AM – noon, with a soup and salad lunch following. 1125 Oakman Boulevard, The 2015 Black Catholic Woman’s Conference is Saturday, April 18, at Sacred Heart Seminary. The theme is “Your Grace is Enough for Me.” Several Rosary members attended these conferences in previous years and found them remarkable! See Darlene Oubre or Denise Hightower for more information.

The current production at the Matrix Theater, “Best of Enemies,” continues through March 15-Fridays and Saturdays at 8, Sundays at 3. This production has gotten wonderful reviews, praising the staging and the actors. No wonder Matrix Theater has been named one of Detroit’s treasures. Drop by and see for yourself. For details, talk to Shaun Nethercott.

Sacred Heart Seminary presents the musical Camelot, the story of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table, Friday March 20 at 7:30 PM and Saturday, March 21 at 2:30 and 7:30 PM. Seminary productions are always first class. No tickets are necessary. Freewill donations are gratefully accepted.
