UPDATE ON DEACON BOB

Deacon Bob Delbeke had a double bypass surgery Monday. He came through in great shape. He and his wife will spend some more time in Florida before returning to Detroit. Let's keep them in our prayers.

LENT

As we move deeper into Lent, please consider these activities to make this a more meaningful Lent:

- As is our custom during Lent, the Bible Study group will meet every Monday at 7:00 PM in the Parish House. The texts being studied this week are—
 - Ezekiel 47: 1 – 12
 - John 5: 1 - 16

Join us to deepen together our relationship with the Word of God. Everyone is welcome. Bring a friend.

- Remember your Rice Bowl offerings and this week's collection for the Catholic Relief Services.
- Stations and Soup-Wednesday, March 5. Watch for details
- As Holy Week approaches, we are planning our Good Friday worship. A Family Hour for Jesus has been a tradition at Rosary. We invite you to take on the persona of someone who might have encountered Jesus while He was with us. Take three or four minutes to speak to your memories—sort of like people do at a wake. Talk to Norbert for details.

ALLIANCE MEETING AT ROSARY

The quarterly meeting of the Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance is this Wednesday, March 18, at 6 PM here at Rosary. First, we will need you here to welcome our guests. Also, we will need to provide refreshments for the guests. Listen for details so we can plan what we will serve. Also—we did not receive our raffle tickets until this week, so.....there are only days left to purchase that winning ticket. Samantha and Norbert will have tickets this weekend, and tickets will be available at the meeting Wednesday.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance and Wayne State University's Colleges of Pharmacy and Health are sponsoring an information session, Monday March 23 at 6:30 PM at Sacred Heart Activities Building. Minority students interested in science and discovery, interested in making a difference in the lives of others, and interested in a high paying career that is in demand are invited to meet with professionals to learn more about health care opportunities. Spread the word to others who might be interested.

MARCH FOR JUSTICE, 2015

On Saturday, March 28, churches and Christian leaders of Detroit will lead a march for justice to unite citizens in protest of educational, economic and racial disparity. Catholic pastors and church leaders urge us to participate and demonstrate our Faith's commitment to the promotion of educational and economic parity, the elimination of racially motivated injustice, and strengthening the existing relationship between the community and law enforcement. The march will start at Chene Park and end with a rally at M.L.King High School. Watch for details. Will Rosary have representation?

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $2,940. 60 envelopes were used. We must be celebrating Spring!!
