LENT

As is our custom during Lent, the Bible Study group will meet every Monday at 7:00 PM in the Parish House. The texts being studied this week are—

- Numbers 21: 4 - 9
- John 8: 21 - 30

Join us to deepen together our relationship with the Word of God. Everyone is welcome. Bring a friend.

Stations and Soup-Wednesday, March 25, 6 PM. We will gather to pray the Stations of the Cross together, then share a simple supper---bread and soup. We invite you to bring soup—something unusual, perhaps. We usually have several pots of soup, so no one person has to bring gallons of soup! There will be a sign up sheet at Mass.

HOLY WEEK

Easter is only two weeks away! The liturgies and events of Holy Week are always very meaningful to us all.

Palm Sunday: next Sunday. Masses at the usual times with distribution of blessed palm.

Holy Thursday: Mass at 5:30.

Good Friday: Stations of the Cross, Family Hour for Jesus. We need volunteers to assume the personalities of people who might have known Jesus during His life, and to speak to us of that person's memories. These short talks, similar to shared remembrances at a funeral or wake, should only take a few minutes. Volunteers—please talk to Norbert.

Holy Saturday: No 5:15 Mass. We are invited to the Cathedral for the Easter Vigil Service and Mass at 9 PM.

Easter Sunday: Mass at 9:30, with the Baptism of Wilson Suprpto and Carina Hurtado. Following the Mass we invite you to bring special Easter baked goods to share.

You may return your Rice Bowl carton at any Mass.

TRANSITION!!

Monsignor LeFevre has been informed by the Archbishop that he will be assigned to St. John Fisher Chapel at Oakland University sometime this summer. There is no indication of who the new Pastor will be at the Cathedral. We will share the information as it becomes available.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The Detroit Catholic Pastoral Alliance and Wayne State University's Colleges of Pharmacy and Health are sponsoring an information session, Monday March 23 at 6:30 PM at Sacred Heart Activities Building. Minority students interested in science and discovery, interested in making a difference in the lives of others, and interested in a high paying career that is in demand are invited to meet with professionals to learn more about health care opportunities.

MARCH FOR JUSTICE, 2015

On Saturday, March 28, churches and Christian leaders of Detroit will lead a march for justice to unite citizens in protest of educational, economic and racial disparity. Catholic pastors and church leaders urge us to participate and demonstrate our Faith's commitment to the promotion of educational and economic parity, the elimination of racially motivated injustice, and strengthening the existing relationship between the community and law enforcement. The march will start at noon at Chene Park and end with a rally at M.L.King High School.

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $1,879. 52 envelopes were used.

KEEP IN PRAYER

Deacon Bob is heading back to Detroit following his recovery from bypass surgery. Sister Joan's surgery was postponed because she had the flu. Let's keep them both in our thoughts and prayers.
