CSA

Can we wrap up the 2015 CSA campaign this week? We are close---but not quite at the goal. Several people promised donations this week and, again, we welcome donation of any amount to boost the number of contributors from Rosary. Just put any donations in an envelope (available at Mass) and mark it CSA with your name. Hopefully next week we will report success!

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $2,292. 49 envelopes were used. We are in the last month of our yearly budget and we are hoping we can report we have met the budget goal of about $2,000 per week.

FIRST COMMUNION AT ROSARY

Next Sunday, June 7, Rosary will be honored by a group of our young people who will make their First Holy Communion. What a great day for this—the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). Try to be here to celebrate with these young people as their Faith lives move forward!

DETROIT CATHOLIC PASTORAL ALLIANCE

Rosary has supported the Alliance “from a distance,”—buying raffle tickets, hosting and attending meetings, etc. The Alliance is looking for a few volunteers to help in the office---processing mailings, scanning books for shipment, and all the many tasks that make the Alliance work. The offices of the Alliance are on Gratiot and McClellan, right next to the I 94 Gratiot exit. Do you have a few hours per week to assist? Talk to Norbert for details.

ST. POPE JOHN PAUL II PARK

Margaret England has been in touch with a group working to restore the Pope John Paul II park in Hamtramck. They have a matching grant, but must raise $10,000. They are very close. Are you interested in helping? Talk to Margaret at Mass or use an envelope that will be provided.

MATRIX THEATER NEWS!

Our friend Shaun Nethercott assures us this will be a busy, productive summer for the Matrix Theater group. We have already written about the exciting summer theater workshops/camps for young people. Today, Sunday only, at 3 PM, there is a special production, The Art Project. This play was written by a Matrix student playwright and explores how people learn to come together and listen to each other, and to experience how art helps bind us together.

Beginning June 11, and running through June 28, the Matrix Theater season closes with a production of Precious Little, a “charming and slightly off-beat play” that focuses on the ways in which we communicate through the experiences of a pregnant 40 year old linguist. Watch for details.

MOVIES IN THE ROSARY NEIGHBORHOOD

New Center Park is located at the corner of Second and West Grand Boulevard. It is a very secure location and hosts many events. There will be movies in the park, FREE, throughout the summer. This Wednesday, Detroit Unleaded, a film selected for viewing as part of the Detroit Film Festival. Friday the film is Toy Story. The park opens at 8 PM and the films start around 9 or 9:30, based on sunset. Refreshments and a cash bar are available at the concession stand.

Another special event in the park will be a concert by Thornetta Davis, a well-known blues singer—Thursday, June 4. For this event, the park opens at 6 PM and the concert runs from 7 – 9 PM.
