PETER'S PENCE

The Peter's Pence collection should have been taken up two weeks ago, but we had not received the envelopes. Also, we had the special unanticipated collection for the Missions. Now we are back on some sort of schedule. The Peter's Pence collection goes to the Pope to assist with the many requests he gets to help with victims of wars, natural disasters, etc. There are envelopes available—but not many. Feel free to use any envelope and label it Peter's Pence. We'll finalize the collection next weekend.

FINANCES

Last weekend our Offertory collection totaled $2257. 51 envelopes were used.

REST IN PEACE

Floyd Jones, an active parishioner here in the 70s and 80s died this week in East Lansing. He was 95! Please remember him, and all those who made us what we are today, in your prayers.

BON VOYAGE

One of our steadfast members, Dwight Whitfield, is moving to California this week. In his quiet manner, Dwight has been a solid supporter of Rosary. He has volunteered to assist with many projects, ranging from chaperoning retreats to helping with Christmas baskets, etc. He has a doctorate in education and is a published author. Let's keep Dwight in our prayers for his success and happiness in California.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Don't forget the Protecting God's Children training next Saturday, 10 AM at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral.
