AN IDEA

A Rosary member suggested we form a Rosary Bicycle Club. Any thoughts???????

FATHER GREG'S GRAB-BAG

It seems like everywhere you look this time of year, there are “new beginnings”! Last Tuesday, the Tigers began their baseball season; this coming week, hopefully, the Red Wings AND the Pistons will begin the Playoffs. I know it’s hard to believe with the cold weather we’ve been experiencing, but all the trees will begin to bloom!! I love this time of year!!

The same “new beginnings” occur in our Catholic Church. The Easter Vigil here at the Cathedral saw us baptize AND welcome new members into our Church. It really doesn’t matter how long we have been a member of the Church—every time Easter rolls around, there should be a “new beginning”!

I am what you call a people-watcher. The expressions of peoples’ faces can be priceless. I always look at the Groom’s face as his beautiful Bride walks up the aisle; sometimes, there is a look of panic, other times a look of “WOW”, still other times a look of contentment! At the Easter Vigil this year, I made a real effort to look at those being baptized and/or welcomed into the Catholic Church. I know you’re saying to yourself—“Well.....tell us what you saw!!” I saw a look of peace and happiness---EVERY person had a smile on their face, EVERY person had a look of accomplishment!!

My prayer for all of us as we make our way through this beautiful Easter season is that we may ALWAYS have “new beginnings” in our lives---that we may share the glorious message of hope and love that is Our Lord Jesus Christ!!

And now for my joke.....

A young man was sitting next to me in one of the two chairs provided for men outside the ladies fitting room in our local department store. After 30 minutes and 6 changes of outfits, the fellow’s wife came out of the changing room one more time. He looked at her and immediately said, “That looks great on you! Get that one”. “Honey,” she replied, “this is what I was wearing when we came in.

Have a blessed week Father Greg

ANONYMOUS MAN SPOTTED AT ROSARY!!!!

Mike Stechschulte | The Michigan Catholic

A man nails "exploitation" to the cross before Good Friday services at Our Lady of the Rosary Parish in Detroit.

The Editor of the Michigan Catholic was here for the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. He spotted this anonymous man balancing on a rickety ladder and put the photo in the paper. Further research has revealed that this same anonymous man has been sneaking into Rosary to climb a ladder on Good Friday for 41 years!
